

THE ANTIOCH NEWS.

VOL. XXVII.

ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1914.

NO. 46

BULLOCK TO RUN AGAINST GEO. E. FOSS

Former Mayor of Waukegan and Present Rep. Co. Chairman Considers the Step

HAS CHICAGO SUPPORT

Reported Anti-Foss Crowd in Chicago Is Seeking Lake County Candidate For Campaign

A little bombshell was exploded in political circles Tuesday morning when the tip spread that former Congressman Foss is likely to have a fight on his hands for the republican nomination for congress in the person of William S. Bullock, former mayor of Waukegan and now chairman of the Lake County Republican Central committee.

Inquiry about town showed that leaders of the anti-Foss campaign in the Chicago end of the district have visited Waukegan several times lately, their latest visit being Monday evening when they conferred with Mr. Bullock, leaving for Chicago quietly at 6 o'clock in their auto in which they made the trip.

Mr. Bullock, when seen about the proposition admitted that he had held several conferences with the Chicago leaders and that a number of his Lake county friends had urged him to enter the race but as yet he was undecided. He also admitted that the Chicago leaders who want to beat Foss, told him plainly that they were going to start circulating his petition at once and that they would insist on his standing for the race.

Mr. Bullock is widely known in Chicago wards where he has many relatives who are influential in that end of the district. It is a known fact that there is a strong fractional scrap in the Chicago district and with Congressman Thompson in the field for the Progressives and Foss and Bullock for the Republicans, a hot scrap would be precipitated to say the least.

Mr. Bullock was mayor of Waukegan for two terms, was alderman of the second ward two terms, secretary of the Republican Central Committee two years and has been chairman of the committee two terms, being the incumbent now. His acquaintance in the county is extensive and if he decides to enter the race, it means a scrap for the nomination clear through to the end as Mr. Bullock, being a Lake county man would likely make his campaign on that basis—of giving Lake a congressman for the first time in history, his argument being that it would be the first time that the split in the Cook county organization has resulted in one side voluntarily tendering a Lake county man its support for the office. Mr. Bullock is now engaged in the coal business with F. M. West.

Laughter a Tonic.
Laughter has its place in every wholesome, healthy life. A man who never smiles is morbid. He has lost the joy chords out of his life. He has trained himself to look only at unpleasant things to look only at the dark side. He has accustomed himself so long to sadness that the muscles of his face have become set in hard, fixed lines, and cannot relax themselves.

Clean . . . of . . .
Mother-of-pearl articles that have become dull and blurred may be restored by cleaning them with pure olive oil, then applying ordinary nail brush and rubbing with chamomile.

It Couldn't Hurt Her.
Mama—"Keep quiet, Edna. You never hear me cry when my hair is being combed." Small Edna—"Yes, but not of your hair hair's h-hitched to your head."

Since She Went to Heaven.
Reminds me of Sarah Jane Skewer. Back on Half Moon, who went travelling clairvoyant. The medium summoned Jane's mother to spirit land, and Jane asked the medium some trick questions. The medium gave the wrong answers, of course. Whereupon Sarah Jane, exclaiming, "O maw, since you went to spirit land, you've learned to be an awn-er!"

BROTHER DARES BROTHER TO SWIM TO SHORE; DROWNS

"I dare you to swim to shore—you can't do it," said Samuel Potash to his brother David as they, with another brother were rowing in the middle of Long Lake, west and north of Grayslake Tuesday night about six o'clock.

"Easiest thing I know," said Dave as he rose from his seat in the boat and said: "Here goes," as he plunged off the boat into the water.

But, he never came up again and the two brothers, frantic in the boat, began a quick search for his body which was continued a greater part of Monday night and all Tuesday with unceasing effort.

Thus, one brother daring the other and the latter not wishing to take the dare as to his swimming powers, caused the death of a most promising young man of 17, who with other members of a Chicago Jewish club has gone to Long Lake on the Graham grounds where they were camping in tents.

It was about 6:30 that the three brothers started out for a row. The hot day and evening had caused them to don their swimming suits to keep cool and incidentally take a dip if they wished. They were all good swimmers. Therefore, it was but a natural remark for Sam to make when he dared Dave to swim to shore after they had reached the middle of the lake, some half mile out. The dare however, proved fatal and the two remaining brothers, frantic in their effort to locate the body of their brother, had to send word back to Chicago.

Busse's Estate Was $150,000
Former Mayor Fred A. Busse of Chicago who died July 9, left an estate valued at $150,000, according to letters of administration approved Monday in Chicago by Assistant Judge I. F. Dankowski in the Probate court on petition of Mrs. Josephine L. Busse, the widow.

The estate consists of $50,000 personal property, inventorial as life insurance, money due for personal services and chattels and of real estate valued at $100,000.

According to the petition, the heirs of the former mayor are: Mrs. Josephine Busse, widow, 4852 Sheridan road; Mrs. Caroline Busse, mother, 878 North Clark street; George A. Busse, brother, Lake Villa, and Mrs. Caroline Mang, sister, 4549 Lake Park avenue. The widow is named administratrix.

Disastrous Fire Near Area
A fire of mysterious origin destroyed an immense barn, several smaller buildings, 100 tons of hay, a quantity of farm machinery and tools and caused the death of several head of horses and cattle on the I. W. Stafford farm, two miles west of Area in Lake county Tuesday morning. A bucket brigade composed of fully one hundred farmers fayed the house from destruction. Mr. Stafford estimates his loss at between $4,000 and $5,000. He carries $2,000 worth of fire insurance.

Mr. Stafford was in Area when the fire started. He hurried home and directed the work of the volunteer fire fighters. The origin of the fire is not known. By the time the fire which started at eleven o'clock had been discovered it was impossible to save the live stock. The main barn was 76 feet long and 40 feet wide.

Not His Fault.
Man at Desk—"Why do you claim a trombone player is less of a bore than a pianist?" Man in Chair—"He is because he doesn't get the chance. He doesn't find a trombone in every home he visits."—New York Globe.

Prudence.
"A fat man is always good natured," said Mr. Dolan. "He only seems so," replied Mr. Rafferty. "He has to go easy in an argument with a friend because he knows he's not in condition to see it through to a finish."

Beast and Burden.
In savage countries woman is a beast of burden, and in civilized countries man is a beast and woman is a burden.—Life.

Limit of Laziness.
The laziest man in the world has been discovered in this town. He stood on Bay street yesterday and held a match out in his hand until a street car brushed by and struck it for him.

But He Said It.
"She ought to drop dead for the awful lies she's telling," said the plaintiff excitedly, listening to the witness for the defense. "Don't say that," admonished the judge. "She ought," repeated the plaintiff. "Don't say that again!" repeated the judge. "Well, I won't," but she ought."

DROWNS IN SIGHT OF FAMILY

Dr. John Fischer, a Dentist of Waukegan, Drowns in Waukegan Harbor

BODY IN WATER 10 MINUTES

Dr. John Fischer. Was Running His New Motorboat With Party of Friends When Accident Happened

Dr. J. M. Fischer, a dentist, and recognized as one of Waukegan's most prominent professional men, was drowned in the waters of the Waukegan harbor about 10 o'clock Sunday morning when he pitched from the deck of his power boat, Wau-Wau-Tay See. Physicians worked over the body of the victim for over two hours but without avail. A heart-rending feature of the tragedy was that Dr. Fischer's wife and son, Joe witnessed all the harrowing details without being able to render assistance.

The motorboat which is a full-cabin cruiser, is one that Dr. Fischer purchased less than two weeks ago, and in which he had taken great pride. On Sunday morning, accompanied by his family together with Attorney and Mrs. Wm. Weiss and Bruce Stephens, he started out in the boat for a cruise about the harbor.

The rudder was acting badly, especially when an effort was made to send the boat to port. At times instead of responding as it should, it seemed to send the craft to starboard. On one of these occasions the boat headed toward the dock, when it should have gone in the opposite direction. To prevent a collision with the dock Dr. Fischer leaped to the rail and tried to fend off the blow, which doubtless would have damaged the boat. In so doing he lost his balance and plunged into the water without an outcry.

His little son, Joe, a boy of about 9 years old, was the only one who saw the fatal plunge. The boat was under way at the time and was rapidly leaving the drowning man behind.

"Oh! Oh! Papa's in the water; save him!" cried the boy.

This was the first intimation that Messrs. Weiss and Stephens had that their friend was in danger. Hastily throwing off some of their clothing they dove over the side of the boat and swam with lusty strokes toward the point where Dr. Fischer was fighting to keep his head above water. Although he was very fond of being around the water he had never learned to swim and his efforts to keep himself afloat were pitifully impotent. Before the two swimmers could reach him he sank beneath the water and did not reappear, as he had sunk twice before.

When they saw their efforts to save their friend were fruitless they shouted for assistance. An engineer on board a boat that was tied up at the salt company's dock, jumped from the boat and secured a grappling hook that is kept at the salt dock. With this, after a few minutes' work, the limp form of the victim was brought to the surface and lifted upon the dock. He had been in the water between eight and ten minutes.

Dr. Gourley was summoned and he drove his auto to the scene at a rapid speed and at once applied restoratives and adopted artificial respiration which he continued until the Larsen & Holland motor ambulance rushed to the scene with a lungmotor. The mouth-piece of the device was applied and for an hour oxygen was pumped into the lungs of the victim with the regularity of natural respiration.

Dr. Fischer was about 45 years old, a native of Chicago; he was married about ten years ago to Miss Elgie Lowry of Louisiana. To them was born a son, Joe, aged nine.

Pebble Industry.
Gathering flat pebbles on the coast near Havre, France, for shipment to foreign countries, particularly the United States, for use in the manufacture of porcelain and in grinding operations, has assumed important proportions in recent years. Approximately 20,000 tons are exported each year to the United States from Havre.

MANY ATTEND REUNION

Novel Picnic Was Held at Grubb School near Millburn

BALL GAME ONE FEATURE

Some of the Aged Pupils Took Part in the Ball Game—Flag Brought During War Floated in the Breeze.

Over 100 people gathered together at the old Grubb school house last Friday in one of the most novel picnics of the season. The gathering was composed largely of pupils of the school who had attended the institution in the earlier days. It was the second annual event of its nature and was largely attended by many from far distances who had returned to the county for the purpose of attending the reunion of the pupils and instructors. A large number from Waukegan attended.

There is a wealth of county history wrapped about the scene of the old structure, which before the war and for many years afterward was considered as one of the most important educational institutions in the county.

There were many at the picnic who had attended the school before the occurrence of the war of the rebellion. Over the picnic grounds a flag, that had been purchased by the pupils of the school during the civil war, flapped in the breeze. Here and there little groups of aged men and women were gathered in groups. They were engaged in recalling incidents of their childhood days, some of the incidents occurred over 50 years ago and had the old Grubb school for a setting. In attendance was one woman, Mrs. Richard Parnell of Chicago, who in 1857 was a teacher at the school.

One of the most interesting features of the entertainment of the day was a baseball game in which many of the old timers took part. In the field was Attorney Peter Fisher of Kenosha, aged 65 years, a former pupil of the school and who in 1838 was county superintendent of schools in Lake county. On second base was Ward Bain of Racine, aged about 55 years. Will and John Rose now of Rochester, Wis., the former attending school in the year 1857 were in the game. John Rose, from the years of 1879 to 1893 drove a stage coach between the towns of Wadsworth and Millburn. Wm. Strang of Waukegan one of the old time pupils of the school, played a pretty fair game at pretty at first. His only drawback being his failure to hang onto the ball when it was thrown or knocked towards him. His batting eye was good, however.

Mr. Strang was slightly injured when attempting to catch a fly, he ran into a barb wire fence. His clothing was tore and he was slightly cut by the barbs.

First Coined Money.
To Lydia, the industrial power of the ancient world, belongs the honor of having issued the first coined money. The earliest known coins were stamped on one side with a lion's head or the figure of a king with bow and quiver. So far as we know the first coinage of gold dates from King Croesus of Lydia. It is impossible to say just what form the earliest money (medium of exchange) took. Probably it was cattle—from which our word pecuniary comes.

Actor of Many Parts.
A Russian immigrant before the alien immigration board claimed to be a "play-actor," and said that he was also a composer. He was vouched for by a cousin who is a furrier. Work was promised the applicant in a tailor's shop.—London Graphic.

As to Beauty.
Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theocritus, a delightful prejudice; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that 'twas a glorious gift of nature; and Ovid, alluding to him, calls it a favor bestowed by the gods.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. PIERCE SATURDAY LAST

On Saturday morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pierce was cast into the shadow of sorrow, when death most unexpectedly entered and removed therefrom the wife and mother. Although in failing health for the past four or five years she appeared in no worse condition than usual when she arose on Saturday morning. In her usual manner she helped in the preparations of breakfast but before the family had gathered for the meal she began to feel badly and putting some cool water upon her head she sat down by a window. So rapidly did she grow worse that she gave instructions to call her husband and sons who were at the barn. Hastening to her side they at once realized her condition and hastily summoned a physician who, although he arrived in a very short time, was unable to do anything to relieve her suffering and in the space of about thirty minutes from the time she was taken ill she had passed away.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary L. French, was born in the town of Somers, Kenosha county, Wis., Feb. 11, 1848. When 12 years old she went to Kenosha living there until she was married on Christmas day 1871 to Homer B. Pierce. They resided for a year in Waukegan then moved back to Kenosha where they resided until 1886, when they moved to Antioch where she lived until her death.

She was a member of the Unitarian church at Kenosha and by her everyday life has exemplified her upright christian character. Of her own immediate family she leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and two sons Herbert and Roy both of this place, also two grandchildren, one sister Miss Mattie E. French of Kenosha and a half sister Mrs. C. D. Waters of Mt. Pelier, Vermont. The funeral was held at the home Monday afternoon at two o'clock with Rev. Stixrud in charge who included in his remarks the following:

She was a Unitarian by faith but this did not deter her from active cooperation with our local church, so as a member of our Ladies Aid and Missionary societies when her health permitted she rendered willing service. A gracious Christian woman has gone to her reward. I cannot speak of how much she meant to this home, of how much husband and children and sisters will miss her. I know their sorrow, is assuaged by a glorious hope and that their grief is for themselves and not for her, with the poet they can say:

The noblest thoughts my soul can claim
The holiest words my tongue can frame
Unworthy are to praise the name
More sacred than all other.

An infant when her love first came
A man, I find it just the same;
Reverently I breathed her name,
The blessed name of mother.

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise
Assured althine that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where his islands lift
Their fringed palms in air,
I only know I can not drift
Beyond his love and care.

Why should I weep that thou art free
From all the grief that maddens me?
Salted and loved—Farewell!

How to Correct the Mistake.
If you misdirect a letter and think of your error just after you have dropped the letter into a box, don't waste time waiting for the postman and asking him for it to let you correct your mistake. He won't do it; the law does not permit him. You must call at the station to which the letter is going and explain the matter to the clerk in charge. He will redirect the letter for you if you give him the correct address in writing.

Elastic Concrete.
Elastic concrete, ties of great strength, holding nails and bolts better than wood, are claimed as a new German railway product. Ties of iron and steel have been used to some extent for many years, but are much less satisfactory, and the reinforced concrete ties hitherto tried have proved disappointing. The new concrete is made from a mixture of asbestos fibers and cement.

Where Skirts Are Not Wanted.
No lady climbing who wears skirts or bloomers will be allowed to take a place on a rope, as these have been found a distinct source of danger to the party making the climb.

DROPS DEAD IN OFFICE

Judge Chas. Whitney, active Citizen of Lake County, Dies Saturday Last

DIES OF HEART FAILURE

Was Lake County's Leading Man for Years in Politics, and Held Many Offices

Hon. Charles Whitney, circuit judge of the district comprising Lake, Boone, McHenry and Winnebago counties, and a member of the Appellate court of this district, dropped dead in his chair in the court house in his chambers, at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon while consulting with a client who had called on him just a few minutes previously. His death was due to heart failure, with which he had been failing for the last 18 months or two years. In fact the judges health had never been good since he returned from California a few years ago where he sustained a severe illness as a result of change of climate.

The judge was stricken suddenly when he was talking to his visitor, and the fall of his body to the floor caused persons in the office of Circuit Clerk Brockway and others to rush up stairs to see what had happened, for court was not in session at the time and the judge's chambers, just to the east of the court room, were unoccupied excepting by himself. The fall therefore caused those who heard it to wonder what had happened. They rushed there from various offices. Among the first to arrive was Circuit Clerk Brockway.

"When I got there he was lying limp on the floor. I felt his pulse and they beat but feebly, said Clerk Brockway as he nervously talked of the end of his life long friend in such a tragic manner in the court house, continuing with: "I then took hold of him and straightened out his legs which were caught in the legs of his chair. I saw that his life was either ebbing or had departed, so we lifted him at once to the sofa and there we soon found he had died without regaining his senses after falling from the chair.

Charles Whitney was born in Lake county on the 6 day October, 1849, a son of Havelia and Harriet Whitney, honored pioneers of this county. He received a common school education, after which he entered upon the study of law in the office of Blodgett, Upton & Williams of Waukegan and after a thorough course was admitted to the bar in September, 1871.

Mr. Whitney began practice alone in Waukegan, but spent the winter of 1872-73 in Chicago, where he was employed in the abstract office of Hardy, Simmons & Company, until January, 1876, when he returned to Waukegan, where he formed a law partnership with Judge Joseph L. Williams, formerly of Blodgett, Upton & Williams, and established business in Waukegan. A year later Mr. Williams went to Colorado, after which Mr. Whitney was alone until the existing partnership with W. C. Upton was formed in 1885 which lasted many years.

In politics Judge Whitney was a Republican and held various offices of honor and trust. He was elected state's attorney of Lake county in 1886, which position he held until 1887, when he resigned. He was chosen a member of the city council, served two years, was then re-elected, but resigned in order to accept the office of mayor, to which he was elected in March, 1886. While in the council he was chairman of the board of education and later a member and secretary of that board. In 1887 he was appointed master in chancery which he held many years.

In the town of Warren, Lake county, on the 3 of May, 1871, Mr. Whitney was united in marriage with Miss Lodima Brown, a daughter of Albert and Della Brown. She was born in Edgemoor, Otago county, New York, June 25, 1851, and had been a resident of Lake county since 1856. They became the parents of three children, two sons and a daughter, namely: Fred B., who was born Sept. 18, 1874; Charles Ray, July 6, 1879; and Ethel May, April 21, 1883. All were born in Waukegan.

Several years after his first wife's death he married Miss Mary E. Whitney.

(Continued on page four)

Drink
Coca-Cola
The thirsty one's one best beverage.
Delicious,
Refreshing

Demand the genuine
by full name—
Nikolai's encourage substitution.

THE COCA-COLA CO., ATLANTA, GA.

TANGO AS A CAUSE OF CRIME

Brooklyn Judge Blames Theft by Two
Youths to Nights Given to Modern Dance.

In suspending sentence in the cases of two youths who had pleaded guilty to attempted grand larceny, County Judge Fawcett in Brooklyn listed "white lights and tango nights" in the catalogue of incentives to crime.

"You can't expect to dance all night," he said, "and lie half the day, yet always have money for your carousals, unless you steal it. And let me tell you, our jails and penitentiaries are full of people with just such ideas. If your family had given you good beatings instead of money to spend, it would have been better for you."

The boys, John Colver, twenty years old, of 487 Hancock street, and Carlton Chapman, sixteen, of 362 Jefferson avenue, had been indicted for stealing money and jewelry from Adelaide Weston, keeper of a furnished room house, where they lived for a time. They belong to respectable families of moderate means. Both promised the judge to go home and begin again. Chapman to return to school and Colver to work. Both wore tango pumps and silk shirts when arraigned.—New York Sun.

For 75 years Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills have been their own recommendation in conditions of upset stomach, liver and bowels. If you have not tried them, a test now will prove their benefit to you. Send for free sample to 372 Pearl St., New York. Adv.

His Specialty.
Employer—Not afraid of early hours, I suppose?

Young Man—You can't close too early for me, sir.—Answers.

YOUR OWN DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU
Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are the best for all ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Write for Book of the Day to 372 Pearl St., New York. Adv.

An egotist is a man who expects a woman to marry him for himself alone.

Women's Times of Danger

Women suffer a great deal from kidney ailments. The kidneys are the filters of the body and if they become clogged, the whole system is affected. It is important to keep the kidneys in good health. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for this purpose. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best for all ailments of the kidneys. They are gentle and effective, and will cure any kidney ailment. Get a box today. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere.

FLORENCE IS ACTIVE

Business in Italian City Again
Has Full Sway.

All Activities Interrupted by Church
Ceremonials Are Again Taken Up
—Festa of Santa Giovanna
Ends Religious Features.

Florence.—Florence is settling down to business again. All the activities interrupted by church ceremonials are resumed, the bells are ringing at regular and frequent intervals and everything is lively and bustling, as a correspondent. Out at Signa, a little walled town about seven miles on the road to Pisa, a unique proceeding incident to the season is in progress—the festa of the Beata Giovanna—and when this is over the local program of religious spectacles and significant services will have been finished. We were strongly tempted to go there, but on inquiry found that to appreciate it fully it was necessary to make an all-day trip, and concluded to do our sightseeing at shorter range.

This ceremonial consists of a series of processions from all the villages around the town whose chapels are dependent upon the plover or parish church of Signa. St. Giovanna was a peasant maiden of the thirteenth century, noted from childhood for her piety and virtues. While young she vowed herself to a religious life and passed many years, walled up in a little cell, in meditation and prayer. Her neighbors, venerating her as a saint before her formal recognition as such, went to her for help and advice. She performed many miracles of healing, especially on children. She died alone in her cell in 1327, and it is a local tradition that her death was announced by the mysterious ringing of all the church bells in Signa and the adjacent villages. A chapel was built to serve as a shrine and her relics were kept for use on extraordinary occasions, being taken to Florence and Prato and elsewhere to stay public calamities.

Easter Monday is the special festival of St. Giovanna, when from the various villages of the district offerings of oil for the lamps of her shrine are sent in processions, borne by small children dressed as angels, riding richly decked donkeys, and accompanied by priests, acolytes and the people in their holiday attire. These offerings are carried on by one into the church and transferred with solemnity to the shrine.

Remarkably beautiful effects are secured by the use of marble instead of glass. This has been accomplished by a new process which has been devised by an engineer of Hamburg, W. Engle. He has succeeded in making plates of marble no more than three millimetres in thickness and for the use designated it is available up to 20 millimetres thick. The suitability of marble for this purpose was realized some time ago, but the difficulty encountered was that of securing the marble in slabs of sufficient thickness. These plates permit of the passage of a greater amount of light than frosted glass does, and at the same time impart to the rays a much pleasanter color. Most opal glasses impart to the light an undesirable greenish tinge, while the light which passes through the marble has a reddish violet which is much pleasanter. After the marble has been ground down to the desired thickness it is subjected to an immersion in oil under high pressure, and the effects secured in this manner are said to be superior to those of stained glass.

Are you a socialist? "I am."

"What do you understand by socialism?" "I haven't got as far along as the understanding part. I picked socialism because I don't like any of the regular brands of politics."

GOOD CHANGE.
Coffee to Postum.

The large army of persons who have found relief from many chronic ailments by changing from coffee to Postum as a daily beverage, is growing each day.

It is only a simple question of trying it for oneself in order to know the joy of returning health as realized by an illa, young lady. She writes:

"I had been a coffee drinker nearly all my life and it affected my stomach—caused indigestion and I was seldom without a headache. I had heard about Postum and how beneficial it was, so concluded to quit coffee and try it."

"I was delighted with the change. I can now sleep well and seldom ever have headache. My stomach has gotten strong and I can eat without suffering afterwards. I think my whole system greatly benefited by Postum."

"My brother also suffered from stomach trouble while he drank coffee, but now, since using Postum, he feels so much better he would not go back to coffee for anything."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkg.

Postum comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be well boiled—15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly—30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

There's a Reason for Postum.

—sold by Grocers

Billions of children under sixteen years of age are at work in stores, factories and other commercial establishments here. This is shown by the report of a statistical investigation conducted by the bureau of compulsory education. Of the 25,875 little workers, 11,718 are girls. The report shows that these children left school in various grades, but that the greater number terminated their education in the sixth grade. Under the compulsory education law, children cannot obtain employment in Pennsylvania until they have attained the fourteenth birthday, but street traders, such as selling newspapers and shining shoes, are excepted.

"Shell Game" Invades Fair.

Chicago.—"Shell game" men invaded the annual fair of the Wisconsin Society of Chicago and before the former badgers discovered that the game was not a burlesque, escaped, leaving many pockets empty.

To Separate "Siamese Twins."

Paris.—Marie Anne and Anne Marie, born May 23 last, the French "Siamese twins" joined together back to back, are to be separated by a surgical operation.

MOURN DEAD IN QUEER WAY

Mourning of the Montenegrins a Frenzied Ecstasy of Wailing, Dancing and Yelling.

London.—In their mourning for the dead the Montenegrins have some singular observances.

In one case, detailed by Edith Durham, who was correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle in the first Balkan war, there was only the semblance of a body, the dead youth having been killed while fighting with the Russian army in Manchuria, and the news of his fate only reached his native village six months after his death.

But he was duly mourned after the custom of his people. On a bier his clothes and weapons were laid, and this done, his relatives and neighbors began their mourning.

They met at some distance from the house and came in procession—first the men, then the women. When within a hundred yards of the house they began the death wail; an awful, wailing, rhythmic chant—"Woe, woe to us, Stevo, O my brother! Woe, woe to us, my winged brother!" The cry was taken in a quick breath which rapidly became a convulsive sob and by the time they had reached the house all were in a state bordering on frenzy.

The men then hurried themselves into the room and danced madly in front of the corpse, or what should have been, leaping a yard high, thumping their breasts with their great fists and yelling frightfully. With tears streaming they threw themselves on the mummy corpse, almost fighting to kiss it. Meanwhile, the mother and sisters in the background sang the praises of their dead boy.

The men were allowed five minutes of this ecstasy of grief, then the priest came forward and said: "Brothers! you have wept enough, make way for others." They withdrew, some reeling with exhaustion; then came the women, who followed the same observances, save that they did not jump. And so, village by village, came the whole tribe to which he belonged. Some did not even know the poor boy's name and had to be coached in the details before beginning to wail; but they sobbed as bitterly as any. Going home the mourners compared notes as to who had cried best.

At the hurrying apples, bits of bread and quantities of rage are thrown into the grave with fragments torn from the mourners' clothes. In remote districts even today both men and women tear their faces with their nails, that they may mingle their tears with blood in token of their grief, though the practice has been forbidden and has fallen into disuse in the larger villages.

Billions of children under sixteen years of age are at work in stores, factories and other commercial establishments here. This is shown by the report of a statistical investigation conducted by the bureau of compulsory education. Of the 25,875 little workers, 11,718 are girls. The report shows that these children left school in various grades, but that the greater number terminated their education in the sixth grade. Under the compulsory education law, children cannot obtain employment in Pennsylvania until they have attained the fourteenth birthday, but street traders, such as selling newspapers and shining shoes, are excepted.

"Shell Game" Invades Fair.

Chicago.—"Shell game" men invaded the annual fair of the Wisconsin Society of Chicago and before the former badgers discovered that the game was not a burlesque, escaped, leaving many pockets empty.

To Separate "Siamese Twins."

Paris.—Marie Anne and Anne Marie, born May 23 last, the French "Siamese twins" joined together back to back, are to be separated by a surgical operation.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

British Forbid Statue.

Cairo.—Trouble is brewing here because the English-led government positively forbids the Egyptian nationalist party to erect a statue in Cairo of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the brilliant young nationalist leader, who died in 1908. A French sculptor executed the work, but when the statue arrived the government refused a site for it in any public square or street. The nationalists vow they will put the memorial on ground owned by one of their leaders. Menace the extremist press rages against the government's prohibition of an act of patriotism.

GET WIRELESS BY BEDSPRING

Eastern Amateur Experiments With a Novel Form of Antennae and is Successful.

Cyrus H. Fladrenaux of Peekskill, N. Y., gives the following interesting account of his experiments with a novel form of antennae for wireless telegraphy:

"There are many things used as antennae to catch the mysterious electric waves which carry our wireless messages through space, and I find that the springs of my bed serve as very efficient antennae. My room is on the second story of my house, and by using these springs as antennae I can easily read the signals sent out every night by the wireless station at Sayville, L. I., although they are not by any means so loud as when I use my outdoor antennae, which are 40 feet above ground, 60 feet long and consists of four wires on spreaders, the wires being two feet apart."

"The bedspring antennae are best for use with nearby high power stations," Sayville, L. I., is about fifty miles from Peekskill. With my outdoor antennae I continually hear the Arlington (Va.) naval station when it sends out the corrected time signals at 11:55 a. m. and at 9:55 p. m.; also the weather reports, Brooklyn navy yard; New London, Conn.; Cape Cod and others, including amateur stations too numerous to mention."

"I have an all-round good apparatus. I hold a station license and an operator's license, both issued by the United States government. My official call is 2 V U."

RASH SPREAD RAPIDLY

Grant, Wis.—My sister had a very bad, deep, wet, running sore on the side of her face and it ran up to her ear. It commenced with a small blotch of pimples which turned into a kind of rash and spread rapidly. It itched and looked red and sore for some time and slightly swelled. A thin fluid dripped and ran from the sores which looked like water. Then the swelling would go down and it would keep on spreading. It bothered her during sleep and she would be restless. It was a kind of eczema.

"She treated for some time and it did not help her. It kept spreading larger and deeper. Having always used Cuticura Soap we told her to try it so she got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and used them. It was two months when it was gone." (Signed) Miss Emma Retzlaff, Apr. 7, 1914.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY
A. B. JOHNSON, Editor and Prop.TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
One copy, one year, in advance, $1.00
Advertising Rates Will be Furnished Upon
Application

Telephone Antioch 481

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1914.

Again we repeat that old, old question. Why can't Lake County have at least one representative who does not hail from the city of Waukegan? Must the western half of the county always be the goat and year after year be lead around on a leash in the hands of the city politicians. For years this has been the situation. Here we have gone on and on through many a political strife, standing for the men from the north shore, seldom asking for any return of the compliment and very, very seldom if ever getting it. We do not even ask for an equal division of the honors, but, out here in the woods we do not feel as though one office in the bunch does really belong to us. Scarcely ever do we even get a chance to show our feelings in this respect but this year one enterprising young Republican from out this way has seen fit to enter the race. Wm. Rosing of Round Lake is a candidate for County Treasurer. Think it over. Is the city of Waukegan again going to tell us to go way back and sit down or are the voters out this way going to unite and put a country man in a county office.

Ed. Shurtleff has announced himself as a Republican candidate for the nomination to the legislature, and in his announcement plainly states his intention of favoring any legislation that may help the dairy farmer, also his intention to vote and work for an effective County Local Option Law. When it is all summed up it looks like it would be a fight between the wets and the dries, with the farming element choosing between the interests of the wets, and what at some future time he might possibly do for them. A plain case of where some serious thinking is needed.

A woman has been placed upon the Democratic ticket for the office of County Superintendent of Schools. Well, women have long claimed to be just as smart as the men and now is their chance to prove it. Can they elect one of their own sex to a county office? Some of the men think not, but right now we do our hat to the fair candidate and predict that she will pile up a considerable vote at the coming primaries, providing she sticks in the race and pays no attention to the lot of masculine bluff that will, no doubt, be handed her.

James Woodman of Waukegan is out after a seat in the Legislature. Jim is a good fellow with lots of friends, but from present indications it would appear that the lucky man that lands the job has sure got to hustle some. When one stops to consider that Shurtleff is after the same place and that Thos. Graham, although a Democrat, has always received a large number of Republican votes, and that many are favoring the Progressive candidate, F. S. Munroe, it is easily to be seen that some sharp scrapping is bound to ensue.

Geo. Edmund Fuss and his man Friday were in Antioch one day last week, apparently bent only upon the pleasures of an auto trip; in reality looking up slack places in the political fence. You ask: Can Geo. Edmund be beaten in his race for his old seat in Congress? We answer: Has he ever been beaten? Has the tenth Congressional District ever turned down the candidate it once supported as an idol? We rather guess yes, and what has been done once can be done again, you know.

Seems like that political bug must have bitten several on its trip out this way. We now have, with us A. McMillan of Grayslake who aspires to the job of sheriff, A. G. Matner of Prairie View, who wishes to be County Treasurer and F. L. Carr of Waukegan for County Clerk, all three gentlemen are Democrats, but they are from the western part of the county and who knows but what they have a good chance after all.

We have had a bunch for some time that former Mayor Bullock of Waukegan would step into the light of the congressional lamp and now we learn that he is seriously considering the move. Go it, Bullock, there's lots of room.

Another aspirant for the legislative honor is about to cast his hat into the ring. The same aspirant gentlemen being no other than the genial John Hodge, formerly an Antioch man, but now of Area.

To Soften Paint Brushes.
Vinegar heated to the boiling point will soften paint brushes that have become dry and hard.

Hendee is the first to file for County Clerk and McDonough for Treasurer and both of course feel quite self-satisfied, but "one swallow doesn't make a whole summer."

Shurtleff-Olson forces planning to unite. Holy Smoke, that's some political move all right. But we wonder if the "uniter" won't break and spoil the whole show after all.

DROPS DEAD IN OFFICE

(Continued from first page)

death he married his wife's sister, who died several years later.

Mr. Whitney was once interested in banking in Arlington, S. D., as a partner in the Central Dakota bank. So, cially he was a Knight Templar, Mason, belonging to Waukegan Chapter No. 41, R. A. M.; Waukegan Commandery, No. 12, K. T. He was also a member of the National Union Insurance association.

Judge Whitney helped launch the Security Savings bank and for years was its president. Later he retired when other duties prevented him giving his time to the banking work.

He was elected circuit judge vice Robert Wright, deceased, some four years ago to fill the unexpired term. He would have been re-elected easily if he chose to run next year had he survived.

Judge Whitney was made a member of the Seventeenth district appellate court two years ago (but court recently tendered his resignation because of ill health, but it never became effective because he had certain work he wished completed before retiring.

BASE BALL NOTES

A game between Burlington and Antioch on the home grounds next Sunday. Come out and root for the home team. They need your support.

Antioch Red Sox to the front once more; for on Sunday last they mustered up their reeling courage and taking the bit in their teeth, handed out another wallowing to their old opponents of Lake Villa. In May these same teams crossed bats, Antioch winning out 7 to 6, in an eleven inning game and ever since that time there has been a secret longing on both sides to make one more tryout, and the time was first set for July 5 and later changed to July 19.

The Lake Villa boys were slow to arrive and it was thought for a time that the game would again have to be postponed. However, about half past three they were ready to begin the game after first having backed out on their own proposition to play the Red Sox for $15 to the winner. This act at once revealed to the Antioch lads the manager's knowledge of their own weakness and was the means of helping them to put forth their best efforts. As far as pitching and catching went Lake Villa was all right but when it came to catching a ball they simply couldn't, the limit being reached when one of the team not only dropped the ball but promptly turned around and sat down upon it. The score ended up 9 to 1, Lake Villa making one score in the eighth inning.

SCORE BY INNINGS

Antioch.....00160000-9
Lake Villa.....000000010-1

Mr. McFaden

The Player Comedian.

Filting in Public.
It may be bad form to flirt with your own husband in public, but it's awful good policy, because if you don't do it some other woman certainly will.

Where Hat Styles Originate.
The attendant led the visitor into the violent ward. "For Heaven's sake!" exclaimed the stranger, "what are those lunatics doing with that straw, heaven, flowers, feathers and ribbons?" "Our millinery department," explained the attendant. "This is where the hat styles originate."

HIGHWAY NOTICE

Public Letting of Contract

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned Commissioners of Highways of Lake Villa Town, and County Superintendent of Highways of Lake County, for improvement of one mile of road on the Antioch Road (so-called), by grading, draining and building a hard gravel road, extending north from the north Village limits of Lake Villa, and being located in Section 29-T46 N-R10, E of 3rd p. m., and for the construction of two (2) concrete culverts on the south side of said road, all to be constructed according to plans and specifications on file prepared by Chas. E. Russell, County Superintendent of Highways, or each bidder may submit his own plans and specifications for the culverts to conform with the plans and specifications on file as to dimensions, and any bid accepted on any other plans and specifications other than those on file will have to conform with State requirements and be approved by Chas. E. Russell, County Superintendent of Highways, and the State Highways Department of Illinois before work is commenced.

Sealed proposals will be received at the hour of 8:35 p. m., on the 15 day of August, A. D. 1914, by the Town Commissioners at a meeting to be held in Village of Lake Villa, Ill.

Separate bids will be received for the construction of the two concrete culverts and separate bids for the construction of the hard road. Each bidder will be required to file with his bid for the proposal for the culvert work, check to the amount of $75.00 and with the proposal for the road construction work, the amount of check shall be $250.00. These certified checks shall be made payable to John Stratton, Treasurer of Lake Villa Town, as a guarantee of good faith, if awarded contract, that he or they will promptly enter into same and file a good and sufficient bond. The certified checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned as soon as contract is awarded, but the check of the successful bidder will be retained until he or they have filed a good and sufficient bond according to advertisement. Separate bids will be received on the grading, draining and preparing the road for gravel and on the furnishing and spreading of the gravel.

The work is to be started in 15 days from date of contract and completed in 60 days from date of contract, to be paid for by Lake Villa Town on completion and acceptance of work.

The undersigned Commissioners of Highways and County Superintendent of Highways reserve the right to reject any and all bids if they deem it to the best interests of the Town and County so to do.

Dated at Lake Villa, Illinois, this 22 day of July A. D. 1914.

F. M. Hamlin,
J. J. Barnstable,
Geo. McCredie,

Commissioners of Highways.

Albert Kappeler,
Town Clerk,

Chas. E. Russell,
County Superintendent of Highways.

Muskrat Skins.

The muskrat is the most important fur-bearing animal of North America. In one year alone 5,500,000 muskrat skins were put on the market, realizing to the trappers a sum approximately $1,700,000.

For the Sake of Shopping.

A few women get so much fun out of shopping that they really hope the articles they really buy won't last as long as the clerk promises, so that they can the sooner repeat the experience.

Valuable Painting Found.

A genuine Rubens has been discovered in a small private dwelling at Strasburg. The painting, which depicts a scene from Herodotus, formed part of a legacy of Queen Christina of Sweden, and dates from between 1622 and 1624.

Carl P. Westerfield

Candidate for

COUNTY CLERK

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primary to be held September 9, 1914.

Letters From a Contented Man.

The editor of the Antioch News: "I have no domestic troubles and no financial troubles to speak of. I am not in love with anybody else's wife and nobody else's wife is in love with me. No one has swindled me and my neighbors don't keep chickens or goats. I have no fault to find with you. I thought it might be a pleasant surprise to you to get a letter of the other sort as a change from the eternal whine."

No Man Knows Another.

No man can justly censure or condemn another, because indeed no man truly knows another.

WILLIAM A. ROSING
Candidate for County Treasurer

Subject to the Decision of the Republican Primaries

September 10th, 1914

Your Support Respectfully Solicited.

If chosen to represent the Republican Party for the office of County Treasurer, and if elected, I will accept, as remuneration for my whole time and the best business and administrative ability I possess, the salary allowed by the County Board of Supervisors as full pay. I will turn into the County Treasury, as earnings of the Office, every penny received from interest on public monies, inheritance tax fees or any other source. I believe the salary allowed by the Board is ample compensation and am willing to give the work my best attention without thought of any perquisite.

To the Republican Voters of the Eighth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination for Representative in the Lower House of the General Assembly, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the Eighth District, consisting of the Counties of Lake, McHenry and Boone, at the primaries to be held September 9, 1914.

If nominated and elected I shall vote for and favor:

1. A constitutional convention, to the end that the State may have:

- A more adequate and modern revenue law.
- A shorter ballot in elections.
- An end to minority representation in the Assembly, and the three (3) vote system.
- A restriction upon the power of the City of Chicago in the Legislature, and a greater measure of home rule for the City of Chicago.
- An easier method of amending the constitution than now provided for.
- Our constitution should be otherwise modernized in various particulars.

2. I shall vote and work for an effective County Local Option Law, as the results of the Township Law show plainly that the County should be the unit in voting on the saloon question.

3. I shall favor, as I always have favored, such legislation as protects the dairy farmer, and I shall endeavor to secure such a settlement between the State Board of Health, and the Chicago Board of Health and the dairy interests so that both interests can live.

4. In the House, I shall favor the cutting down of the standing committees from sixty-eight to fifteen in number, and make them all working committees; and shall favor the doing away with all rules that prevent the House, by a majority, from acting at any time as the majority of the House see fit.

A stenographic record of everything said and done in each House of the Legislature should be taken and made a part of each day's printed Journal and given the widest circulation and publicity.

Very respectfully,

EDWARD D. SHURTLEFF.

$45,000 Worth of Merchandise
For $27,000 in Special Purchases

W A U K E G A N
The
Globe
DEPARTMENT STORE
W A U K E G A N

Great $27,000.00
Trade Sale

The Backward Season Has Caused Mills to Sacrifice

Thirteen Big
Manufacturers
Contribute
Greatly

This Sale is Without a
Peer in Our History

Tons of New
Merchandise
Secured at Rock-Bottom

We can't tell you of the merchandise, or the astounding offers made, in this small space, but there has never been anything to compare with the value of goods accumulated, the ridiculously low sacrifices manufacturers made, or the splendid, high quality merchandise offered. The time to anticipate future needs.

We have run sales before, and the greatest sales Lake County has ever known, but in offering you the opportunities of this gigantic trade sale we can safely say all records, all bounds have been broken to unusual proportions. Great preparations for the selling of these stocks have been made.

Case after case has entered our building until every department is fairly bursting at the seams. Every department offers you the same savings on the specially purchased goods. The tremendous volume must be closed out quickly because our store will soon be needed for fall and winter goods. Attend this sale without fail.

The Globe Pays Carfares here on Purchases of $5.00 or Over

LOCAL ITEMS

Local Announcement and the Elgin Butter Market.

ELGIN, ILL., July 13.—The committee declared butter at 27 1/2.

Wm. McNeil called on Antioch friends Wednesday.

B. O. Bestor of Kenosha called on friends here Monday.

Miss Olive Young of Fond du Lac, is visiting friends here.

Little Martha Hillebrand is spending this week in Waukegan.

Rod and Dick Baker of Evanston spent Sunday among Antioch friends.

C. E. VanPatten and family are now occupying their summer cottage at Bluff Lake.

Rev. Stixrud spent Friday and Saturday of last week at the camp meeting at Des Plaines.

Mr. Kelly of St. Louis, Mo., spent the past few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fisher, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Meyer of Michigan City, Ind., are spending the week at the home of G. Schilke.

Joe Stephens, Frank LaFleur and Miss Sarah Burke of Evanston spent last week at Channel Lake.

Elsie Panowski returned Sunday after enjoying a two week's visit with relatives and friends at Lake Forest.

Mrs. Geo. Mason entertained a number of friends at her summer home at Channah on Wednesday of this week.

Men's white and silk hose at Webb's Adv.

The weather doesn't seem to decrease the crowds at the Crystal theater. The pictures are entertaining enough to make one forget the weather.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kretschmer of Chicago a baby girl on Tuesday, July 21. Mrs. Kretschmer was formerly Miss Helen Johnson of Grass Lake.

The Eastern Star Chapters of Lake county will hold a basket picnic at Lake Aren, Thursday, July 30. All stars and their families are cordially invited. Gertrude Brooke, secretary.

For Sale—Motor boat fully equipped, 2 years old, first class condition, will sell automobile buggy in running condition, will sell both for $100. Must dispose of these at once, need the money. Tel. 213. Dr. Morrell, Antioch, Ill.

Every Sunday at Fox Lake school house at 10 a. m., at Ingleside at 9 a. m., at Long Lake pavilion at 8 a. m., at Lake Villa at 9 a. m. and at Antioch at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Father Lynch, pastor.

Any kind of a summer shirt at Webb's Adv.

For Sale Cheap—One 8-passenger 2 wheel Irish cart in good condition, and cart harness. Also one milk wagon. Call on Mrs. C. W. Clingman at Antioch or phone 222. Having sold my horse I will dispose of these articles cheap.

A letter from Rev. Whipple informs us that he has been misquoted in his address at the Des Plaines meeting. He states that his remarks were meant to convey the idea that a preacher should be a "preacher first and other matters should be secondary" and that a reporter on the grounds misconstrued his meaning and thus gave him credit for the remarks that have been so widely published, when in fact it was not his meaning at all.

Plenty of binder twine at Webb's Adv.

Dreams of Wonerland at the opera house Thursday and Friday evenings was well patronized and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The children took their parts exceedingly well and the entire production gave evidence of much careful training although the time spent in preparation was not lengthy. Saturday evening the same cast went to Grayslake where the performance was repeated. The play was staged by Miss Maud Fair of Chicago and was given under the auspices of the Epworth League. The amount cleared was in the neighborhood of thirty dollars.

Card of Thanks

We wish extend our heartfelt thanks to dear friends and neighbors who kindly assisted us in our great bereavement.

Homer Pierce,
Leroy Pierce,
Herbert Pierce
and family.

Making One's Own Happiness.
One makes one's own happiness by taking care of the happiness of others.
Saint Pierre.

Wise.

"I don't want to brag about myself. I've done many foolish things in my time, but I've been wise in one way." "What's that?" "I never had the idea that I could paper a bedroom myself."
—Detroit Free Press.

Points and oils of all kind at Hunt's. Mrs. Wm. Belter entertained Chicago relatives this week.

Mrs. J. R. Cribb left on Wednesday for a visit at Cherokee, Iowa.

Sewing machine supplies of all kinds. Machines cleaned and repaired. J. C. Jamis.

Mrs. Rosenfelt is entertaining her mother and sister from Marsalis, Ill.

Mrs. Hunting is spending a few days this week with friends at Rockefeller.

Mrs. John Welch of Libertyville attended the funeral of Mrs. H. B. Pierce here Monday.

When it comes to blinding twine Deering Standards leads, others follow. Ask Hunt about it. adv

Mrs. W. W. Warriner spent Tuesday in Chicago.

Geo. Bradley and wife of Lake Forest visited at the home of Jos. Panowski over Sunday.

Ted Lenore is placing a stock of pianos in the Bruckner building this week, and already has the prospect of sales.

Miss Doyle of Waukegan and Miss Carney of Kenosha visited several days past at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fisher.

Lost—A black and tan Gordon setter, with collar, and answers to the name of "Rex." Return same to Robert Guthrie, Lake Maria. adv

Oscar Sardstrom of Waukegan has been awarded the contract to build the new Lake county hospital upon his bid of $11,420. He will start work at once.

Mrs. Geo. Paddock and granddaughter Georgia VanPatten returned home Monday evening after a two week's visit with relatives and friends at Saunemin and Pontiac, Ill.

Elk skin working shoes at Webb's Adv.

Saturday night lightning struck Fred Hembrock's barn on the Gunder Rusten place. It caught fire and was totally destroyed together with the contents which included seven tons of hay and some farm machinery.—Chetck. Alerk.

Messrs and Mesdames O. Rudd, R. Holderness, J. E. Ferris, T. Lawton, and the Misses Hazel Holderness, Ingalong and Charlotte Rudd, and Misses Lawrence Sheldon and Lawrence Ferris of Kenosha and Ray Paulson of Rockford, were the guests of Mrs. C. T. Brogan last Sunday.

M. A. Hughes and wife, Mrs. Sam Baker of Somers, Wis., Fred McLaughlin and wife and daughter Marion of Burlington, Wis., and Misses Gertrude and Ethel Pierce of Waukegan, Wis., Miss Virginia Burgess of Salem, Wis., and Miss M. E. French of Kenosha, Wis., attended the funeral of Mrs. H. B. Pierce, Monday.

Hessies' guaranteed fly chaser at Webb's Adv.

A Woman's Foreign Missionary society, composed of twenty members, was organized at the M. E. church last Sunday evening as the result of an address on that work by Miss Bertha Creek, a missionary from India. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. J. Feller; Vice President, Mrs. Wm. Runyard; Treasurer, Miss Lotie Jones; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Stixrud; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Adeline Clark. The society will meet once a month, a course of Child Study, dealing especially with the condition of children in the heathen lands will be taken up first. The dues are ten cents per month. Miss Creek will return to Antioch on Wednesday, August 12, and will speak at the church that evening in native costume, she will also show many curios from the foreign field and be ready to answer any questions you may ask on this subject.

Warning His Mother.

After little Edwin's mama had borne with his naughtiness until her patience was exhausted, she gave him a long overdue spanking. After the first sting had passed away and his angry crying had subsided into a whimper of griefed repentance, he sobbed mournfully: "You w-want to be p-pwotly careful, mama, how y-you 'p-ank me—'cause y-you might owack me!"

Base Ball
RED SOX

VS.

BURLINGTON

Sunday, July 26th.

Game Called at 2:30

Just received a new supply of bugles. Frank Hunt.

Wm McCabe of Evanston is spending this week in this vicinity.

J. H. Goodrich of Delevan, called on his many friends here Monday.

Robert Kelly of Chicago Sundayed with Antioch relatives and friends.

Jesse Levey and Frank Luck of Chicago visited at Osmond's over Sunday.

Miss Florence Ginter of Chicago is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Isaacs.

Mrs. Kettlehut of Burlington is a guest at the home of her son, O. W. Kettlehut here.

Gasoline and kerosene stoves at Hunt's.

Mrs. Schroeder of Chicago is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williams.

Children's Day exercises at the church next Sunday morning. Children will be baptized. Splendid program being prepared. Be sure and come.

A home talent play, entitled "A Cheerful Liar," a screaming comedy in 3 acts, will be given at the opera house in the near future. Definite announcement next week.

Lewis' Fly Killer for stock, at Hunt's Adv.

Miss Mary Schilke who has been spending the past two weeks here leaves for Algona, Iowa, on Friday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. John Felter of that place.

Young Sandow, gave a number of marvelous feats of strength at his show under canvas Friday and Saturday evenings of last week. Although it just happened that there were other attractions in town on both of these same evenings, his tent was packed to the limit at both shows.

Joseph W. Freund of McHenry, democratic candidate for representative from the 8th district, was in Antioch Wednesday, sizing up the political situation here. He expresses himself as being very much pleased with the general outlook and expects to far surpass his former vote in this section.

"Safety First" Electric Lanterns at Hunt's Adv.

A meeting was called for Saturday, July 11, for the purpose of electing one school director to fill vacancy caused by the death of B. H. Overton. For some reason or other no interest was taken in the matter and no one seemed to desire the position and neither did any one seem inclined to vote, the result being no candidate and not a single vote cast. Another meeting for the same purpose was called for Saturday, July 18, and this time the name of D. B. Sabin was placed in the field with no one in opposition. A total of eight votes were cast. Men 6, women 2.

Township Treasurers Report

Annual statement for publication of receipts and expenditures of township and district funds, by the treasurer of township No. 46, range No. 10, Lake County, Illinois, during the fiscal year beginning June 30, 1913, and ending July 1, 1914.

TOWNSHIP TREASURER IN ACCOUNT WITH SCHOOL TREASURERS

Balance on hand at beginning of fiscal year (July 1, 1913)	$ 635.32
From Distribution of Trustees	235.49
From District Taxes	1024.30
From Transfers, Tuition Fees and other	227.82
Other Sources	1.40
Total	$1870.07

ITEMS OF EXPENDITURES

School board and business offices	$ 22.90
Teachers	7242.16
Text books, stationery, supplies, etc.	16.49
Interest on teachers' orders	18.35
Tuition of transferred pupils	56.00
Janitors, engineers, etc.	326.50
Fuel, water, light, etc.	538.40
Maintenance of plant	925.10
New equipment	2265.00
District Bonds	2340.00
Interest on bonds	105.82
Balance	4342.35
Total	$15670.07

DISTRIBUTIVE FUND

Balance on hand, July 1, 1913	$3.74
Interest, rent, etc.	643.76
From County Superintendent	897.47
Total	$1544.97

EXPENDITURES

Incidental Expenses of Treasurers, stamps	2.00
Compensation of Treasurer	100.00
Distributed to Districts	706.10
Total	$808.10

TOWNSHIP FUND

Balance on hand July 1, 1913	$ 1824.60
Total	$ 1824.60

ITEMS OF EXPENDITURES

Balance on hand, July 1, 1914	$1824.60
I do hereby certify the foregoing report to be correct, according to the best of my knowledge and belief.
E. B. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14 day of July, A. D. 1914.
W. J. E. ZIEGLER, Notary Public.

She Filled It.

"Miss Lovely," said he earnestly, "you have noticed these missing word contests in Fun, I know. Well, I have one that I want you to help me with. The sentence is, 'Will you be my—?' Can you supply the missing word, dear one?" "Yes," said she, meaningly; "elster."

Slipping.

There's no slipping up hill again, and no standing still when you've been run to slip down.

INGALLS BROS.
WAUKEGAN
OPTOMETRISTS
Graduates of McCormick
OPTICAL COLLEGE

What Did He Mean?
Pat was servant of a farmer and in his charge was a donkey which was kept to amuse his employer's children. The donkey, was following the farmer's wife round the yard one day, and the farmer, turning to Pat, said: "I think that donkey is taking a liking to my wife." "Och," said Pat, "shure and it's not the first donkey that's took a liking to her, sir."

Only Outside Clean.

There are some frenzied financiers who appear to think that taking two baths a day and donning fresh linen ought to excuse them for being thieves.

The World.
The world is full of people who keep insisting that something ought to be done.

Bring Tibet to Alaska.

It has been proposed by a United States official to Alaska to cross the yak of Tibet with Galloway cows for the purpose of obtaining a type of cattle suitable to the rigorous life in the Arctic country.

LEW A. HENDEE
County Clerk

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican Primary to be held on Wednesday, September 9th, 1914. Your vote and support is respectfully solicited.

J. L. REDDING, D. V. M.
VETERINARY SURGEON

Graduate Chicago Veterinary College
Office
EDWARDS HGTCL—RUSSELL, ILL.
Phone 3068

OVER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS

TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS & COPYRIGHTS ETC.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HARGREAVES & CO. Patent Attorneys, 333 Broadway, New York.
A handsome illustrated weekly, latest circulation of an authoritative journal. Terms, $3 a year, four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & CO. 364 Broadway, New York.
Branch Office, 225 E. St., Washington, D. C.

J. C. James, Jr.
Justice of the Peace and Notary PublicReal Estate
Both Farm and Lake Property

Fire Insurance Agent for Several Good Companies
Accident, and Life Insurance, Reasonable Rates and Good Companies.
J. C. James, Jr., Antioch, Ill.

BANK OF ANTIOCH

EDWARD BROOK
BANKER

Buy and Sell Exchange and do a General Banking Business

J. C. JAMES, JR.
UNDERTAKER

LICENSED EMBALMER
Licensed by the State Board of Health

Lotus Camp No. 557 N. W. A.

Meets at 7:30 the first and third Monday evening of every month in Woodmen hall, Antioch, Ill. Visiting neighbors always welcome.
ED. GARNETT, W. C. J. C. James, Clerk

T. N. DONNELLY &amp; CO.

Loan and Diamond Brokers
Number 24 North Dearborn St.
Diamonds, Watches and all kinds of Jewels at less than cost. At half the price, you get regular stores.
Dec 19 61

SEQUOIT LODGE No. 827, A. F. & A. M., hold regular communications the first and third Wednesday evenings of every month. Visiting Brothers always welcome.
FRANK HUBER, Sec'y.

ELMER BROOK, W. M.
The Eastern Star meets second and fourth Thursdays of each month.
IDA OSMOND, W. M.
Gertrude Brook, Sec'y.

L. G. STRANG

Licensed Embalmer and Funeral Directors

ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS

Phone 311
Also Farmer's Line

KILODOR

Destroys all Odors-Kills all Germs

Directions For Using Kilodor Disinfectant

For refrigerators, meat, fish boxes or milk cans one ounce of Kilodor to half bucket of water, wash out with sponge or cloth.

For theaters, public buildings, restaurants, etc., three ounces Kilodor to bucketful of water.

For hotels, hospitals, prisons, police stations, jails and fire departments, two ounces to a bucketful of water.

For bar rooms, markets, street cars three ounces to bucket two-thirds full of water, use mop.

To purify urinals and closets, one ounce Kilodor to a gallon of water, pour into receptacle and flush out.

For floor around urinals, or washing cuspidors, three ounces Kilodor to bucket two-thirds full water, use mop for floor.

For stables or basements, five ounces Kilodor to ten gallons of water. Use sprinkling can and sprinkle over floor.

For Sale By

J. R. CRIBB, ANTIOCH, ILL.

July Specials

Now is the time for binder twine, we have the "Deering Standard" on hand to supply your wants.

Don't let your cattle suffer from the torment of flies, etc. We sell the "Standard Fly Shy".

Remember that we are agents for the J. H. C., McCormick line of farm machinery. Repairs for all J. H. C., Machines.

Janesville and Studebaker buggies, wagons, etc.

Oils of all kinds. Call and see us. We can save you money on your auto oils in half barrel quantity.

We have as nearly a complete line of shelf hardware as you can find in any country hardware store.

E. L. WALD &amp; CO.

LAKE VILLA, ILL.

FIRE INSURANCE

DON'T wait till your house burns down before you secure insurance.

If you are not carrying insurance, or if you wish to secure more or make a change, call on us and let us figure with you.

We have some of the best companies and can give you the lowest rates

JOHNSON &amp; JOHNSON

News Office

Antioch, Ill.

REFUSE FLAT RAISE

COMMERCE COMMISSIONERS ARE READY TO ISSUE THEIR RATE DECISION.

SOME BALM FOR RAILROADS

Rolling Authorizes Increase in Class Freight Rates That Will Give Them $15,000,000 More a Year—Economies Are Demanded.

Washington, July 21.—The decision of the interstate commerce board in the five per cent rate increase case is both favorable and unfavorable to the railroads. The ruling, which was completed at a meeting of the commission, is virtually ready for issuance, though a few changes may be made. A measurable increase in class rates is granted.

No increases whatever are allowed on commodities.

No flat five per cent increase is granted on any commodity or upon any class rate.

To that extent the decision will be sweepingly unfavorable to the carriers.

Increases in class rates amounting to $15,000,000 annually are authorized.

To that extent the decision will be favorable to the roads.

Economies which will save the eastern lines probably $25,000,000 a year, are insisted upon by the commission.

The financial mismanagement of many of the lines will be cited as a reason why efficiency and economy must take the place of added revenue from rates.

Extravagance and waste in the purchase of supplies are condemned by the commissioners.

The roads are rebuked by the commission for an attempt to create a public sentiment in favor of an increase.

Any increase, the commissioners will say, higher than that allowed in the forthcoming order would fall upon the consumer and the consumer will be warned against any dealer who charges more for his goods by reason of the decision.

These in general are the big and important phases of the commission's report as printed. But few if any changes will be made before it is given out. An increase possibly may be allowed on two commodities, but hardly upon more.

CAN'T REACH ARCTIC PARTY

Steamer Kit Gives Up Attempt to Rescue Explorer Stefansson and His Companions.

Nome, Alaska, July 21.—The predicament of the remnant of Explorer Stefansson's party, who have been smothered on ice-locked Wrangell Island, is growing more perilous, according to the officers of the steamer Kit, which has arrived here from the Arctic. The Kit is a powerful ice breaker yet she was unable to get within one hundred miles of Wrangell Island.

The Kit forced her way through Behring strait and brought up at Cape May 27. For the next 14 days she tried every opening lead to reach Wrangell Island, but finally gave up the attempt. Her master, a veteran whaler, reports the ice conditions in the Arctic the worst ever known.

Gonzalez Starts an Uprising.

Vera Cruz, July 21.—Two unofficial telegrams received here say Fernandez Gonzalez with 3,500 federal soldiers has started an uprising in Mexico City and sent word to Emiliano Zapata that he will aid him in taking possession of the government. Zapata is reported to have notified the authorities of the small towns around the capital that he will begin hostilities immediately unless they surrender. Gonzalez returned to Mexico about a month and a half ago under the amnesty offered by Huerta to all participants in the previous rebellion who would come back and fight the Carranza forces.

Slaughter by Jealous Man.

Springfield, Ill., July 21.—Jealous because his wife left him a few months after they were married, Charles Jerdes, aged twenty-four years, a farmer of Edinburg, 18 miles southeast of Springfield, began a murderous assault that did not end until he had killed his wife, Mrs. Hela Jerdes, aged eighteen years, probably fatally injured his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Gardner, and turned the gun upon himself, inflicting mortal wounds.

King George to Thank President.

London, July 21.—King George is to thank President Wilson by personal letter for the latter's success in having passed through congress the Panama canal tolls anti-exemption bill.

O. K. Chicago-St. Louis Telephone.

Washington, July 20.—The senate committee on post offices and post roads reported favorably a bill authorizing the post office department to establish an experimental telephone line between Chicago and St. Louis.

Life Term for Isaac Bond.

Chicago, July 20.—Isaac Bond, a negro, was found guilty of murdering Miles Ida O. Leegson, an art student and sculptress, on the outskirts of the city on October 4, 1913, and sentenced to life imprisonment by a jury.

AFTER BIG SWINDLERS

GOVERNMENT WILL PROSECUTE SEVERAL COMPANIES.

Worthless Tracts Along the Rio Grande, Title to Which is in Dispute, Sold to Investors.

Washington, July 21.—Several companies and corporations that have been fraudulently selling lands along the Rio Grande are soon to be prosecuted by the federal department of justice. The lands are practically worthless and title to them is in dispute between Mexico and this country.

The operators are said to have made millions out of the fraud. A special investigation of the matter was made by W. W. Follett, consulting engineer of the international boundary commission, Gen. Anson Mills, chairman, which is seeking to settle by agreement the claims of the two governments to lands created by changes in the course of the river. His report to the commission shows that the fraud was extensive. More than one thousand of the claims secured by innocent parties have been invalidated by the commission.

The operators in these sand lots obtained some color of title to the property, presumably from Mexican claimants, before the commission had decided to which country the land belonged. Through enticing literature and by other means the speculators unloaded the land at cheap prices to reckless investors on representation that they were fertile and well watered. Investigation by Mr. Follett developed that much of the lands sold were non-productive, even though the title to them could have been sustained.

HINDUS PERIL SHIP CAPTAIN

Three Hundred Men Threaten Him as He Obeys Orders of Immigration Chiefs.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The immigration authorities sent a letter to Captain Yamamoto of the Komogata Maru, demanding that he leave the harbor with his 352 Hindu passengers. The captain proceeded to carry out the instructions of the immigration officers, but the Hindus threatened him with violence, so he was forced to do as they wished. The immigration patrol boat then took the captain off and a conference was opened in the offices of the agents of the vessel as to the next action to be taken.

STORM HITS KENTUCKY CITY

Henderson Almost Wiped Out by Terrible Tornado—Many Buildings Demolished.

Henderson, Ky., July 20.—The dawn of day after a night of intense darkness revealed to Henderson the extent of the damage by the tornado that struck the city. Buildings demolished or partly wrecked, a net of twisted wires, telegraph poles lying across the streets and trees twisted up and buried prostrate made a scene of desolation and havoc. When the three-story building of the Crane Furniture company was blown down it crushed the home of William Snell, a contractor, adjoining, killing Mrs. Snell and her fourteen-year-old nephew.

MRS. CARMAN IS INDICTED

Woman Charged With Killing Mrs. Bailey in Husband's Office Released on $20,000 Bail.

New York, July 20.—Mrs. Florence Carman was arraigned in the Nassau county supreme court at Mineola on Friday and pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging manslaughter in the first degree which had been voted against her in connection with the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in Dr. Edwin Carman's office at Freeport, on June 30. Justice Van Sicken fired bail at $20,000 and Attorney M. Levy, representing Mrs. Carman, said it would be furnished at once.

U. S. MEDIATORS WILL ACT

Government Will Seek to Settle Differences Between Railroad Employees and the Managers.

Washington, July 20.—The United States board of mediation and conciliation will begin work trying to settle the differences between the 98 railroads and their employees and firemen. It was announced by the board on Friday.

Start Oklahoma Building.

San Francisco, July 20.—Ceremonies in connection with ground-breaking for Oklahoma's building were on the program at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mrs. Fred Sutton of Oklahoma City, commissioner to the exposition, will turn the first spadeful of earth.

Waukegan Dentist Drowned.

Chicago, July 21.—Dr. J. M. Fiesher, a Waukegan dentist, was drowned in Lake Michigan at the beginning of a motorboat trip with his family and two friends. He lost control of the rudder and fell out.

I. W. W. Leader Is Murdered.

Winnipeg, Man., July 21.—Hiram Johnson, active leader in the Industrial Workers of the World, was discovered murdered at Egg Lake, 27 miles from Alton, northern Alberta.

Monument for Composer of "Dixie."

Ashtabula, O., July 20.—The marked grave at Mount Vernon, O., of Daniel Decatur Emmett, composer of the famous southern song, "Dixie," is to have a monument soon, to be erected by a northerner, James L. Smith.

CARRANZA DEMANDS ABSOLUTE SURRENDER

General Carranza, here seen at Saltillo receiving the news of the victory of Guadalupe, says the army that has been supporting Huerta must surrender unconditionally to the constitutionalists.

HEADS OF FIRM JAILED

BARR & WIDEN OFFICIALS SENTENCED TO PRISON.

Federal Judge Landa at Chicago Also Fines Men for Defrauding People Out of $2,000,000.

Chicago, July 20.—Federal Judge Landa sentenced the nine officials of the Barr & Widen Mercantile agency, who were found guilty of violating the federal postal laws and of defrauding countless persons out of a sum of money estimated at between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. The court exonerated several for the part they took in the frauds.

The sentences follow: Abram H. Freeman, superintendent of agents of the company, eight years in prison and a fine of $4,000.

Frederick L. Wendler, general manager of the mail office in St. Louis, eight years in prison; fine, $4,000.

James T. Minehart of Chicago, former Methodist minister and a contract man, four years' imprisonment; fine, $5,000.

Charles F. Day, Chicago, a contract man, four years' imprisonment; fine, $5,000.

Robert E. Pender, Pittsburgh, a contract man, three years' imprisonment; fine, $2,500.

Joseph P. Flukemna, Kansas City, a contract man, three years' imprisonment and a fine of $2,500.

William W. Fellers, Kansas City, nine months in house of correction.

J. H. Worman, St. Louis, nine months in the house of correction.

Joseph C. Stevens, Kansas City, a contract man, three years' imprisonment; fine, $2,500.

CARPENTIER WINS ON FOUL

Heavyweight Champion of France Given Decision Over "Gunboat" Smith on Sixth Round.

London, July 18.—Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of France, defeated "Gunboat" Smith, the American, before a tremendous crowd on Thursday. The Frenchman proved himself to be a great fighter, clever and with a punch capable of delivering grueling punishment. The sixth and last round of the fight opened with a clinch. Carpentier missed a left to the jaw. Smith was very slow, and Carpentier landed him in the eye with his left. Smith began to jab wildly with his right. Smith knocked Carpentier down and hit the Frenchman while he was down. Referee Corri disqualified Smith for hitting Carpentier while he was down and declared Carpentier the winner.

FLASHES OFF THE WIRE

New Orleans, La., July 17.—Three rats infected with bubonic plague germs have been found in New Orleans according to an announcement here by Dr. W. C. Rucker, assistant United States surgeon general.

Washington, July 17.—W. O. Mulkey was sworn in as a representative from the Third district of Alabama to the house.

Paris, France, July 17.—Gabriel D'Annunzio, the Italian poet, who had been slowly recovering from a serious illness dating from last April, has suffered a relapse. His condition, it is said, requires the greatest attention.

St. Louis, July 17.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt authorized the Progressive city committee to announce that his will appear in St. Louis about the middle of October.

Rev. L. R. Patmont Found Again. Milwaukee, July 21.—Rev. Louis H. Patmont, hero of the Danville kidnapping, has been discovered again, and according to reports which reached here, is in a log house ten miles from Rib lake in northern Wisconsin.

Slays Judge Haley's Son. Athens, Wis., July 21.—Pierston Haley, aged forty, lawyer, son of Judge L. W. Haley of Milwaukee, was shot and killed by Herman Becker, a sub-tenant on his farm. The slayer afterward killed himself.

MOB RAZES 3 MINES

STRIKERS AND NON-UNION MEN WAGE LONG BATTLE NEAR FORT SMITH, ARK.

PROPERTY LOSS IS $250,000

Union Miners Use Dynamite and Fire to Destroy Structures—Four Persons Are Wounded During Fight—Women and Children Taken to Safety.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 20.—Union miners and sympathizers numbering several hundred destroyed nearly everything at the three mines of Mammoth Vela Coal company, at Prairie Creek, 25 miles east of here, and engaged a force of non-union employees in a battle that waged from six o'clock until noon on Friday. Dynamite and fire were used to destroy the structures. The loss is $250,000.

The most remarkable incident in connection with the clash, the result of a strike of union employees, is that no one was killed, and that only four persons were injured. The battle came to an end when the employees exhausted their supply of ammunition. The unionists claim their forces numbered between two and four hundred, while the non-unionists allege they were attacked by fully 1,500 men. While the latter say that they had but from sixty to one hundred men, the union forces declared they numbered 200.

The first attack was made on mine No. 1, where a tippie and smaller buildings were burned. Then an attack was made on mine No. 3, where a tippie and company houses were set afire and the machinery and mouth of the mine shaft dynamited.

The attacking force next moved to mine No. 4, the only plant that was guarded and operating. The employees were lodged behind a barricade, while the attacking force took refuge in the timbers and rocks on the edge of ridges in nearby hills. The long-distance lance at which the fight was waged prevented any fatalities.

The trouble is the result of the climax to a strike called in progress at mine 4 since last April, when the company substituted union miners for the open shop policy.

Prior to the opening of hostilities, all telephones, wires in the strike district were cut, and the women and children in the danger zone were removed to safety.

According to well founded reports, the trouble came as a sort of reprisal for the alleged shooting up of Frog town, a union mine camp near here. It was reported to the authorities that on Sunday and Wednesday night of this week, the non-union employees of mine No. 4 shot up the town. This is emphatically denied by the operators.

HAPSBURG WINS BIG STAKE

English Horse Lands $50,000 Eclipse Trophy, the Richest Turf Event in England.

Sandown Park, England, July 18.—The Eclipse stakes of $50,000, one of the richest turf events in England, was won here by H. Cholmondeley's three-year-old Papsburg. Sir John's Honeywood ran second and Sir John's Kennymore third. Eighteen horses ran. The Eclipse stakes event is run over a course one mile and a quarter long.

Get First 1914 Bale of Cotton.

Savannah, Ga., July 18.—The first bale of Georgia's 1914 cotton crop, and the earliest ever received in the history of the local cotton exchange, arrived here. It was grown at Donaldsonville in Decatur county, and is believed to be the first cotton baled east of the Mississippi.

McGearty to Fight Carpenter.

Sydney, N. S. W., July 21.—Eddie McGearty, middleweight pugilist, now here, has received an offer from the National Sporting club of $10,000 and expenses if he will fight Carpenter in London. He has accepted.

Slays Judge Haley's Son.

Athens, Wis., July 21.—Pierston Haley, aged forty, lawyer, son of Judge L. W. Haley of Milwaukee, was shot and killed by Herman Becker, a sub-tenant on his farm. The slayer afterward killed himself.

BIG FRAUDS BARED

COMMERCE COMMISSION REPORT ON RAILWAYS AND COAL OPERATIONS.

NEW YORK CENTRAL IS HIT

Swindle, Rebates, Discriminatory Practices and Special Privileges Alleged in Connection With the O'Gara Company.

Washington, July 22.—The interstate commerce commission has sent to congress a sensational report on the relations of the New York Central lines with the O'Gara Coal company, and of other railroads with coal operations generally in Illinois.

The report covers a gigantic scheme of alleged fraud, rebates, discriminatory practices and special privileges.

The men most deeply involved are: W. O. Brown, former president of the New York Central system.

Charles P. Hewitt, brother-in-law of W. O. Brown.

S. W. McCune, an agent employed by Brown.

John Cartensen, vice-president of the New York Central.

It. M. Huddleston, general auditor of the New York Central lines west of Buffalo.

The report finds that these officials promoted the O'Gara Coal company and the Saline Coal company for the purpose of protecting the future fuel supply of the New York Central system and of securing additional tonnage.

According to the findings of the commission, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, a part of the New York Central, paid the O'Gara company a rebate of $60,000. The New York Central solicited business for the O'Gara company; paid it more for coal than it was getting from any other concern, protected its contracts; loaned it nearly five hundred thousand dollars; extended its credit without security or interest, and gave it other preferences more technical but just as advantageous.

When Mr. Brown started out to acquire the coal land in question, he chose as his agent S. W. McCune, "whom he had known for nearly twenty-five years," says the report, "and in whom he had such explicit confidence that he declined to require a surety bond of him, saying that he would be personally responsible for the property in his care." To assist McCune, Mr. Brown appointed Charles P. Hewitt, his brother-in-law.

The record shows that he at once became a tool in the hands of McCune, with whom he agreed to divide his commission in return for certain services by McCune, the nature of which Hewitt was unable to explain, and which McCune did not explain.

The record does not show that Mr. Brown had any knowledge of the irregularities in the purchase of these properties.

GEN. HUERTA LEAVES MEXICO

Goes on Board German Cruiser Dresden, Which Will Take Him to Jamaica.

Puerto Mexico, July 22.—Victoriano Huerta has left Mexican soil, probably never to return. After open signs of mutiny which led to the arrest of two officers for attempting to execute the soldiers to assassinate him, the ex-dictator fled to the German cruiser Dresden.

Standing amidst a group to whom he was bidding farewell, the ex-president granted the first real interview he has given out since he left Mexico City. He hurled shafts of sarcasm at Wilson and Bryan, and predicted that there would be chaos in Mexico for a while, but that the ultimate preservation of the country's autonomy would be accomplished without the intervention of the United States.

TRAGEDY IN LOS ANGELES

Contractor Kills Beautiful Georgia Woman and Then Puts Bullet in His Own Brain.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 22.—While her five-year-old son frantically called for help, Mrs. Edna Sikos, the beautiful young wife of President Sikos of the First National bank of Norcross, Ga., was shot and killed at her temporary home here by Charles H. Haag, a Los Angeles builder and contractor. Haag then sent a bullet through his own brain and fell dead across the body of his victim.

Creps Above the Average.

Washington, July 22.—The composite condition of crops in the United States on July 1 was about 1.4 above their average condition on that date according to the farmers' bulletin issued by the department of agriculture.

Striking Miner Is Killed.

Lexington, Ky., July 22.—J. P. Cox, superintendent of the Beyer Coal company, and a guard fired into 25 striking miners who attempted to destroy the office with dynamite. One of the miners was killed and others wounded.

Cleanliness is next to Godliness—change clothes frequently—big wash of course—not much trouble though. Use RUB-NO-MORE CARBO NAPHTHA SOAP. No rubbing—clothes soon on line—sweet and clean.

Carbo Disinfects RUB-NO-MORE Carbo Naphtha Soap

RUB-NO-MORE CARBO NAPHTHA SOAP should also be used to wash the finest fabric. It makes it sweet and sanitary. It doesn't need hot water.

Naptha Cleans RUB-NO-MORE Washing Powder

Five Cents—All Grocers

The Rub-No-More Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

One Hundred Years Ago. The curious modes which women affect now began as far back as 1708, which is a period we should hardly wish to copy in most respects. A dance not at all unlike the tango was in vogue at that time, and had many exponents, who danced in loose boleros opening in a V shape from the shoulders almost to the waist. Skirts were slit and were often made of transparent gauze.

We may return to the gowns of that period, which were without waists, having simply a girde to the bust, with skirts caught up rather short in front and slightly trained at the back. In 1800 women wore mandals and bare feet. Corset belts were only about two inches wide. Some gowns were caught up to the knee with large canoes. Soon fashion overreached itself and then came crinolines, pointed footgear and unmanly small waists. Are we coming to this?

For the Russian governmental railways some huge purchases are to be made—17,000 freight cars, 1,400 passenger cars and 700 refrigerator cars.

Libby's Soups

Soup making is an art. Why trouble with soup recipes when the best chefs in the country are at your service? A few cans of Libby's Soup on your pantry shelf assures you of the correct flavor ready in a few minutes. There are Tomato, Vegetable, Chicken, Oxtail, Corn, Mock Turtle and other kinds.

Your grocer has them.

Picture Yourself in Colorado

YOU feel the thrill of new life the minute you get there. There's a bracing tonic in the very air.

—matchless mountains —dashing, sparkling streams —deep canyons and gorges —daisy heights, crested peaks —savage blue skies

Some new enchantment greets you with every turn.

You have dreamed Colorado realize your dream this summer.

Low round trip fares via the

Missouri Pacific

Write for our Colorado Book—hand-somely illustrated.

J. C. HOLLENBECK

General Passenger Agent

ST. LOUIS

531-1

University of Notre Dame

NOTRE DAME, INDIANA

Thorough Education: Moral Training. Twenty-one courses leading to degrees in Classics, Modern Letters, Journalism, Political Economy, Commerce, Chemistry, Biology, Pharmacy, Engineering, Architecture, Law.

Preparatory School, various courses.

For Catalogues Address

BOX H, NOTRE DAME, INDIANA

Highly Improved Southern Wisconsin Half Section

Farm United States. Also its acre, well improved, soil fertile. All stock and machinery if desired, price low, terms reasonable. Consolidated Farming Co., 1125 North 1st St., Milwaukee, Wis.

PATENTS

Walter F. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Book free. Illustrations. Best results.

HUERTA ABDICATES; FLEES MEXICO CITY

Dictator's Resignation Accepted by Both Houses of Congress—
Foreign Minister Carbajal Takes Oath as Provisional President.

Huerta and Blanquet and Families to Flee on Dutch Warship—
Trains Carrying Refugees Are Guarded by Large Detachment of Troops.

CHRONOLOGY OF HUERTA'S RULE

Feb. 18, 1913—President Francisco I. Madero arrested. Assassinated two hours later. Huerta proclaimed provisional president.

Feb. 19, 1913—General Venustiano Carranza proclaims himself constitutional president of the republic.

In the following weeks President Wilson brings pressure to bear to force Huerta's election.

Oct. 26, 1913—Huerta calls general election and is re-elected.

Nov. 3, 1913—President Wilson, through Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy, demands Huerta's resignation.

April 10, 1914—Party of American marines landed at Tampico insulted and jailed by Mexicans.

April 21, 1914—Huerta refusing to salute American flag American battleships sent to Vera Cruz and land forces. Seventeen sailors killed.

April, 1914—Torreón and Monterrey captured by Villa after stubborn battles.

April, 1914—John Lind quits Vera Cruz.

May 2, 1914—Charge O'Shaughnessy given passport by Huerta.

May 7, 1914—Matatlan surrenders to rebel forces.

May 10, 1914—Saltillo and Puebla evacuated by Huerta.

May 21, 1914—A-B-C conference goes to Niagara Falls.

June 23, 1914—Zacatecas captured by Villa.

All during June many reports and denials of breaks between Carranza and Villa.

July 2, 1914—A-B-C. mediatore urge election of government satisfactory to both factions, which meant the elimination of Huerta.

July 15, 1914—Huerta resigns as provisional president.

Mexico City, July 16.—President Huerta has given up the fight. His resignation as president of Mexico has been handed to congress. Senor Carbajal, the foreign minister, took over the reins of government.

Huerta and General Blanquet, the minister, left the capital over the Mexican railway on a special train to take the families at Puerto Mexico.

The train in command of General Sarratello, was closely guarded. General Huerta, wife of the dictator, her children and close friends left the capital at midnight on a special train for Puerto Mexico.

The Dutch warship Koetnewaer left for Puerto Mexico for the evident purpose of taking the refugees and.

A special train bearing Senora Huerta and party was preceded by two military trains and followed by a third.

The departing party included Senora Huerta and her children, Col. Luis Fuentes, the dictator's son-in-law, and his wife; the family of Minister of War Blanquet, the family of Gen. Liborio Fuentes, father of Col. Luis Fuentes; Eugenio Farades, the treasurer general of the republic; the Agulla family, who are relatives of Senora Huerta, and several close friends.

Forty-three years ago an Indian youth attired in cotton garments and wearing a coarse straw hat walked in to the office of General Guerra, one of the military chieftains of President Juarez and said he wanted to be a general. He had been making a miserable living as a clerk, but in his very early boyhood he had an unalterable ambition to enter the army.

The general, struck by the boy's determination, spoke to the president, and obtained for him a scholarship in the military college of Chapultepec. He had acted as a messenger to General Guerra, and the general took a great interest in the lad.

This was Victoriano Huerta's beginning.

Like Villa, Huerta has been in many a hard campaign in subduing uprisings throughout the republic in years past. He is a courageous man and a great military leader.

In 1876 Huerta suffered his first defeat in battle at the hands of the government forces led by Porfirio Diaz, the former president. After this he was given garrison duty at Acapulco, and was later selected by Diaz to put down the rebellious tribes that from time to time menaced the peace of Mexico. He was successful and promoted in rank.

Finally, however, he was distrusted by Diaz, and this break led afterward to many another. Charges were made frequently that he was not loyal to the government, which he vigorously denied. In fact, Huerta made many public appeals for loyalty in the army, and himself sought to be the example.

His break with Madero, however, brought down the wrath of leading men of the nation, and made those friends of Madero intensely bitter. To the charges that he had proved a traitor to his country, he replied by saying conditions had reached such a serious stage in the government since Madero took office that he was compelled through the medium of the military to seize the government and restore order.

Since he has been in office the question, in the light of past events in the republic, has often been asked what part the Indian spirit plays in shaping the destinies of the nation. Huerta's execution of Maximilian is borne in mind. The then president of Mexico would not yield to plans for mercy. Nothing but blood could satisfy him.

The circumstances of the murder of Madero and Suarez were much the same. Huerta has been charged with this, and although he denies it many still declare that he was responsible. If he did not actually commit the deed.

In stature Huerta is above that of the average. He has a bulky frame, rugged features, a massive jaw and the dark complexion of the Indian. He is very fond of society and takes an active part in the smart affairs at the capital.

President Huerta sent his resignation to congress in the afternoon. With the announcement of his withdrawal from Mexican affairs the dictator sent a statement declaring that in his personal fortunes or safety, but had decided to quit through motives of patriotism. Amid cries of "Vive Huerta!" the resignation was read and referred to a committee.

Francisco Carbajal, foreign minister, took the oath as provisional president following the acceptance of Huerta's resignation by both houses of congress.

Marines May March on Capital.

Washington, July 16.—American troops, with marines from the British German and other foreign ships at Vera Cruz, will be rushed to Mexico City to protect the capital from the looting and rioting that threatens to follow the abdication of Huerta, the moment such a step becomes necessary.

It became known definitely, though it was not officially confirmed, that Huerta's object in repairing the railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico City was not for the purpose of getting himself and his family to safety, but to get the American and other forces into the capital to preserve order and to protect the city from the excesses of the victorious constitutionalists.

The call for these troops will come from Carbajal when the situation becomes more threatening.

It remains to be seen whether the abdication of Huerta and the transfer of authority to Carbajal will bring order out of chaos and result in a termination of the civil war in the Mexican republic.

Villa Says War Will Continue.

Juarez, Mex., July 16.—"The resignation of Huerta and the naming of Carbajal as his successor will not stop the war," said General Villa when his attention was called to an extra announcing the change of administration in Mexico City.

His Thought.

His wife—"But, dear, tell me why you want my photograph taken in uniform?" "Hor Hubby—"So that three years you will look at it and say what I would like to say right now."—Judge.

"White Wing" Inherits Wealth.

Pasaleo, N. J.—August Novak, a white wing, has inherited a $25,000 inheritance in Germany, but will continue sweepstake, he says.

Ald Women With Tight Skirts.

Asbury Park, N. J.—To aid women who wear light skirts the local councilmen will demand lower running boards and steps on street cars.

To Cook an Egg for a Little Child.

Have the water boiling rapidly, then break the egg into it and set it on top of the stove or where it will keep warm for three minutes; then serve. The egg will be jellied all the way through.

Wilson Likes June Brides, But Couldn't See 'Em

PRESIDENT WILSON has no desire to spoil the honeymoon of any June bride. Unfortunately, however, affairs of state prevent him from granting all the favors asked by June brides who happen to come to Washington on their honeymoons. That is why a certain June bride and her darling hubby from Pasaleo, N. J., had to leave town very much disappointed.

Accompanied by the aforesaid darling hubby, and clad in a very very diaphanous gown, this June bride strode into the executive offices to see Secretary Tumulty.

"We have just been married," announced the bride, blushing.

"Congratulations," said Tumulty. "Isn't it delicious!" she exclaimed.

"It is," agreed the secretary.

"We want to see the president," announced the bride.

"Sorry, miss—I mean madam, but he is very busy."

"But," she pouted, "John and I thought it would be just too nice if he posed with us for a photograph."

The secretary gasped and then gulped.

"Impossible," he said. "He's too busy."

"Then," exclaimed the bride, "won't you do it?"

"I am very sorry," explained Tumulty, "but the president needs me right away."

WASHINGTON CITY SIDELIGHTS

Swarm of Bees Is Attraction in Capital Street

WASHINGTON—Chauncey C. Harned, the Washington correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle, entered his office on Fourteenth street in the heart of the business section early the other morning and found a compact group of visitors there ahead of him. The guests were rolling about the office, not on the floor, but halfway between it and the ceiling. A swarm of bees coming from the land of no man knows where had taken possession.

Harned knows little about bees except that they sting, a fragment of knowledge which made him cautious. He turned on the electric fan, and the visiting swarm settling into the path of the wind passed out an open window to fasten themselves in a body in the place of a storm-broken maple.

The bees were an attraction. Traffic was blocked for a while with a throng of curious but none too courageous spectators. Finally a bold one fastened a big paper box to the tree just below the bees, saying that they soon would settle in it and that when this happy result was reached he would clap the cover on and be the owner of a swarm that would bring him $20 in the market.

The bees would not go into the box. For half an hour the crowd watched expectantly, but the buzzing bunch clung to the foliage of the poplar and ignored the trap retreat. Soon there happened along James P. Hornaday, for years the Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis News. In his youth Hornaday had lived on a farm, and he knew about bees. He said: "Get a small bell; put it in the box, think it and the bees will enter."

The crowd told Hornaday he was a fine josh, but that it could not fall for such stuff. The correspondent, finding his advice reproached, went his way. Five minutes later a man in a wagon came along. He was a farmer, for he showed it. He took a little bell off a bicycle which was standing at the curb, put it in the box and rang it. In two seconds the bees had dropped in a bunch from the foliage into the box, the cover was clamped on and the farmer drove away with his prize.

One Side of Politics at the Nation's Capital

HE HAD a keen eye, and from the neck up he looked like a brilliant, successful young man. A survey of him from his chin down disclosed the fact that he wore a shiny evening suit a size too small for him, that he had a telltale sinking-in somewhere in the immediate vicinity of his wishbone, and the tops of his shoes were in far better condition than the soles. Altogether, he was on his uppers—a fact which he was conceding to his friend in the hotel lobby.

After a while there appeared in the distance the picture of unlimited wealth, unswayed success, and uninterrupted prosperity. Instead of a sinking-in at the wishbone, he exhibited a Dutch-window effect. His clothes fitted him to perfection. Evidently he had come out a victor in every battle he had fought against adversity.

As soon as he appeared, the young man in the small evening clothes was electrified into new life.

"Excuse me," he said to his friend. "That old duffer is from Wisconsin, and he wants to get an ambassadorship. I'm helping him to get it."

All of which is another indication that strangers looking for honors in Washington will pay large sums of money to any needy person who claims to have influence with Bill Jones, who says he has influence with Congressman Smith, who is known to have influence with Senator Jones, who must have influence with a cabinet official who has more influence than anybody else with the president.

It's a fine old graft.—Popular Magazine.

Found a Good Way to Defeat a Political Boss

THE most abject slaves of a political boss will revolt if their slavery is hung in their faces," philosophized Representative McKellar, who comes from the Memphis (Tenn.) district.

"I had a concrete example of that in my first congressional campaign," he continued. "One day I met in the street the political boss of Binghamton, a manufacturing suburb. For years he had voted the men like sheep, and he was proud of his autocratic rule. He had opposed General Gordon, my predecessor, and was now violently, but good-naturedly, opposing me.

"Mac," he said, 'you won't get but four votes in Binghamton; there are 352 votes there altogether, and I'll poll the 348. I carry them in my vest pocket.'

"We'll see about that," Tom," I replied, with a laugh.

"And thereupon, relying upon that principle of human nature I have just stated, I planned my attack upon Tom's stronghold, where I was to speak the following night.

"I got my crowd in a good humor that evening with a few preliminary stories, and then electrified them by assuring them that I did not expect their votes; that they could not vote for me, even if they wished to, for, no longer ago than yesterday, I told them, their fellow townsman had informed me that he carried all their votes but four in his vest pocket—and they would all be cast against me. I called for a show of hands from those whose votes reposed in Tom's vest pocket; not a hand! I then called for the hands of the independent voters—and every hand went up!

"And, on election day, I carried Binghamton by a handsome majority!"

Wilson Likes June Brides, But Couldn't See 'Em

PRESIDENT WILSON has no desire to spoil the honeymoon of any June bride. Unfortunately, however, affairs of state prevent him from granting all the favors asked by June brides who happen to come to Washington on their honeymoons. That is why a certain June bride and her darling hubby from Pasaleo, N. J., had to leave town very much disappointed.

Accompanied by the aforesaid darling hubby, and clad in a very very diaphanous gown, this June bride strode into the executive offices to see Secretary Tumulty.

"We have just been married," announced the bride, blushing.

"Congratulations," said Tumulty. "Isn't it delicious!" she exclaimed.

"It is," agreed the secretary.

"We want to see the president," announced the bride.

"Sorry, miss—I mean madam, but he is very busy."

"But," she pouted, "John and I thought it would be just too nice if he posed with us for a photograph."

The secretary gasped and then gulped.

"Impossible," he said. "He's too busy."

"Then," exclaimed the bride, "won't you do it?"

"I am very sorry," explained Tumulty, "but the president needs me right away."

HUERTA A PROTEGE OF GENERAL DIAZ

Former President of Mexican Republic Early Recognized Possibilities of Man Who Practically Succeeded Him in Power.

Has Seen Hard Service, and From the First Has Been Recognized as a Ruthless and Determined Man—Seemingly Knows No Quality of Mercy.

Once intended by old Porfirio to be a second Diaz in Mexico, now, like his former chief, a fugitive from the wrath of his compatriots, Victoriano Huerta sees himself at sixty forced to resign the presidency of his country. He will, it is believed, go to Europe, where, like other Latin American presidents, he will end his days with little enjoyment save that of reminiscence.

Huerta was born to wealth. Unlike Diaz, who is of plebeian origin, a mongrel, mostly Indian, Huerta comes of one of the most aristocratic families in Mexico.

He was born in Chihuahua, with which state the Huertas have long been identified, in 1854, or 1857, reports differ. At the age of seventeen the aristocrat was appointed by Diaz, then ruling Mexico with an iron hand, to the military school of Chapultepec.

Huerta served his four school years passably well. He was neither at the head nor the foot of his class. He was graduated with honors, being about the tenth in a class of nearly a hundred, and immediately went to join a regiment on the west coast as a second lieutenant of engineers.

When President Diaz began his reorganization of the Mexican army Huerta was promoted captain of engineers, and while holding this rank devised the plan for a Mexican general staff corps. He was an active member of the military map commission created to draft a staff map of Mexico on a large scale, and he had charge of all the topographical work of the commission, leading exploring and surveying parties over the wildest regions of the republic.

President Diaz soon after began to place confidence in Huerta. He believed he saw in the lieutenant colonel of engineers, to which rank the soldier had succeeded, traits which would make him a worthy successor in the executive chair. Huerta was placed in charge of a station in Matanzas, far removed from the capital. There plots could be easily hatched, and Diaz was loath to leave in charge any officer in whom he had not implicit trust.

Huerta was barely thirty-five when this incident occurred. One afternoon while he was riding with an escort of but three men through a mountain pass in the vicinity of his station, six or seven masked men stepped from the roadside and covered his little party. Naturally they threw up their hands.

The highwaymen proved to be members of the band of Flores Zegaza, the bandit who kept the community on the feather edge. It was his habit to descend on the towns along the coast and levy toll whenever hunger or caprice impelled him to do so. Huerta soon stood in front of Zegaza's but, an adobe dwelling, much dilapidated, far up the mountain.

There Zegaza made the proposition which was not at all unusual in Mexico then, and which is, in fact, quite the vogue today. He proposed that Huerta should keep him informed as to the days when the military forces would be marching in a direction opposite to the town.

On such days Zegaza would make it a point to call, with his followers, and collect from the natives such stores of money and clothes and food and wine and tobacco as had accumulated since the last visit.

Zegaza was not at all surprised to have Huerta accept his proposition to receive in return for the promised information a share of whatever loot fell to the bandits.

Ten days later Huerta sent word to Zegaza that he would be away from the station on the following Thursday.

Promptly on Thursday the bandits rode into Matanzas, confident there would be no opposition except from the sporadic pogroms of the overrightened storekeepers. As they turned into the main street, discharging their revolvers to frighten every one away, a squad of Huerta's soldiers closed in on their rear, and another squad appeared in their front.

A number of Zegaza's men were killed in the street. The remainder, with the bandit chief himself, surrendered. A week later Zegaza was shot in the quarter of the prison attached to the station.

Huerta is no drawing room soldier. He has seen much active service. In 1901 he took command of the infantry in the campaign against the Yaqui Indians. After this campaign he was again put in charge of the general staff's topographical work in Sonora. He participated in subsequent Yaqui campaigns, and also in the campaign in Yucatan against the Maya Indians.

Huerta commanded all the detached government forces in the state of Guerrero at the beginning of the Madero revolution. When Madero succeeded to the presidency, General Huerta was sent back into Morelos with a force to put down the Zapata rebellion. As a result of ill feeling growing out of this campaign, Huerta was recalled. Subsequently he led the army sent against Orozco, and was in command at the battle of Dachimba. For this service he was promoted to major general.

In the second Felix Diaz revolution, which resulted in the overthrow of the Madero government, Huerta was immediately called to active command as the senior ranking general then in the capital. He escorted Madero from Chapultepec castle to the palace on the first of the ten days' fighting and was placed in entire command of the forces of the government. He directed the government troops during all the subsequent fighting, and the conduct of these operations led to severe criticism on the part of Madero's friends.

It was charged that he did not carry out the operations with any spirit and that he disobeyed the commands of President Madero. It is said that before Blanquet entered the city the generals had a conference at which the fate of the Maderos was sealed.

Huerta was the moving spirit in the consummation of the plot that resulted in the seizure of the person of President Madero, his brother, Gustavo, and Vice President Jose Pino Suarez. The assassinations of the Maderos and Suarez followed, and in the meantime Huerta, with the military behind him, had been recognized as the provisional president.

Huerta at once sought recognition of the United States, for it is understood in Latin-American countries that none of their presidents can hold office long without being recognized by the American government. President Wilson, however, refused to treat Huerta as chief executive of Mexico.

In the meantime, General Carranza, the successor of Madero in the dream of a justly governed Mexico, was winning over the North. His military commander, General Villa, repeatedly defeated the federal forces. Practically all of the North came under the constitutionalist sway. In the South Zapata held out against Huerta.

Then the United States came down upon him, seizing the city of Vera Cruz as a result of an affront to the Stars and Stripes. Mediation at the instance of Argentina, Brazil and Chile followed with no satisfactory results.

HAVE FAITH IN CARBAJAL

Huerta's Successor a Civilian and a Man of Acknowledged Probity—His Honorable Career.

Mexico City.—Francisco Carbajal is forty-four years old, a native of the state of Campeche, and a lawyer. Almost ever since the start of his career he has occupied posts in the judiciary. In the Madero administration he was a senator, but relinquished his post to re-enter the supreme court, of which he was chief justice at the time General Huerta appointed him minister of foreign relations.

When General Porfirio Diaz determined in 1911 to treat with the Madero revolutionists, Senor Carbajal proceeded to Juarez as his commissioner.

Senor Carbajal has a reputation for possessing considerable intellectual force and independence of character. His demeanor is quiet. He shuns the exuberance in verbiage and gesticulation to which Latin-Americans are prone. He is courteous, but a man of few words and little given to elaborate compliments.

Besides, he is neat and well groomed in appearance. His features indicate pure European descent, without any admixture of Indian blood.

Altogether he is a man who conveys an impression of reserve power. He is a good man of business.

His probity has never been questioned. He has been sagacious and successful in investments and, while not rich, is a man of independent means. He is a man of family.

Two Regrets.

"I suppose John is still taldin' life easy?" said the woman in the tram.

"Yes," answered the woman who was carrying a bundle of clothes. "John has only got two regrets in life. One is that he has to wake up and eat, an' the other is that he has to give up eatin' to sleep."—Pearson's (London) Weekly.

Flight Fog by Wireless.

Clearing away fogs by hurling into the mist great belts from a wireless apparatus has been demonstrated to be feasible by the North Railroad company of France. The electric waves dissolve the water particles which constitute the fog.

As much as 600 feet can be cleared in front of the antennae. With improved machinery it is confidently believed that the discovery will prove of great benefit to ships at sea and will do much to prevent such accidents as the ramming of the Empress of Ireland and the drowning of hundreds.

RURAL NEWS ITEMS

LAKE VILLA

Mrs. H. Potter visited relatives last week at Genoa Junction.

Mrs. Jennie Johnson of Cedar Crest Farm visited in Chicago last week.

Mrs. Gertrude Miller with friends made an auto trip to Waukegan last Friday.

The little Misses McCullough of Gurnee spent the week with Mrs. Ola Barnstable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hamlin with Mrs. Fred Hamlin and Clayton were in Waukegan Monday.

Lyle Miller, of the Soo Line had a vacation last week, which he spent at his home here.

Mr. and Mr. Earl Potter, of Waukegan spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Potter home.

Geo Mitchell and Clayton Dixon went up in Wisconsin on a fishing trip Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mary and Marguerite Sheehan are spending their vacation with relatives in Waukegan, Evanston and Chicago.

Wanda, Helen, Hewey and Charley Joern of Chicago are spending their vacation on their father's farm at Hastings Lake.

The Fox Lake Cemetery Society will meet at the school house, July 29, picnic supper. Visitor Welcome.

Lura Culver, Sec'y.

The card party and dance given at the Dick's Cottage Saturday by the girl's club who occupy it was quite successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Avery were in Chicago last Friday and returned with a new five passenger Studebaker for Chas. Kapple of Grayslake.

Miss Alice Smith of Grayslake has been engaged by the school board as principal here for the coming year, and with Miss Doolittle and Miss Mathews, we predict a very successful year.

Mrs. Jas. Kerr started Tuesday for Long Pine, Neb., and other western points for a visit with her mother and other relatives. Mr. Kerr accompanied her as far as Chicago.

While out riding on Tuesday of last week, Wendell La. Guess removed the bridle from the horse in order to let it drink when it started and ran, throwing on Miss Maude Snyder who was in the carriage, and bruising her considerably, although not seriously.

Fred Meyer who has conducted a saloon here for some time has moved to the cement block building at Loon Lake where he will be in the same business. We understand that the building vacated by him will be occupied by Mr. Heasel Faber as barber shop and pool room.

Be on the Safe Side.
"Give de devil his due," said Uncle Eben, "but make your arrangements as near as you kin so you won't owe him nuthin'."

Rains the Next Day.
The Barmale—"You wouldn't be at ways broke if you saved up for a rainy day." The Other—"I often do, niles—but it always rains the next day."

Didn't Like Fat Hair.
Hair Dresser—"Your hair's very thin on the top, sir." Customer—"Ah, I'm glad of that; I hate fat hair."

Way to Test It.
A writer in the Tampa Tribune has been discussing the world-old question of whether prayer is ever answered. We suggest to the gentleman that he gives prayer a thorough test and see how it works in his case.

COLD, STORMY WEATHER
Has no horrors for the man who has a plentiful supply of our celebrated Pettist Coal on hand. It's a great satisfaction to know the wife and children at home are comfortable when the cold, wintry winds are blowing. A word to the wise.

Order Your Pettist Coal now
In clam weather prepare for the storm.

For Sale by
F. J. HUNT

HICKORY

Gordon Wells visited over Sunday in Waukegan.

Mrs. Ed Gillings of Waukegan visited last week at the Wells home.

Mrs. E. A. Mann and Harvey visited Friday afternoon at A. T. Savage's.

Lula Peterson and Ruth Pullen visited last week Tuesday at Tom Frazier's.

Irene Savage returned home Friday after spending the past two weeks at Hebron.

Mrs. Thomas Peterson and Mrs. David Pullen spent over Sunday in Burlington, Wis.

SILVER LAKE

Mrs. H. Walburg was in Chicago Tuesday.

Mrs. Bauman of Lyons was a visitor here a few days.

Miss Iris Wicks was a visitor here over Sunday.

Chas. Schulz, wife and son Claude visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Lena Schenning and son are visiting in Chicago.

Miss Albertine Johnson is taking care of Mr. Evans near Trevor.

Miss Josephine Prosser is visiting her cousin Iris Wicks in Brighton.

Mrs. Mike Gallagher and son of Chicago are visiting here with relatives.

Mrs. Geo. Bebler and children returned to her home in Grand Ledge, Michigan, Tuesday.

Mrs. Bert Dean and niece Bernice Bernhoft returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with Rey. Bancroft and family at Dayton, Ohio.

The Book Said So.
The geography class was in session. One small pupil astonished the class by stating that in a certain section of South America there were talking monkeys. When the teacher questioned the statement the youngster opened his geography and triumphantly read: "This region is inhabited by a species of monkey; properly speaking, apes."

Philosophy in Hindu Proverb.
There is a Hindu proverb which can give a good deal of solid satisfaction in a hard world. It runs, "I had no boots to my feet and I murmured until I met a man along the road with no feet."

Shouldn't He Worry?
Tutor—"Why do I look so troubled? Well, last night I dreamed I died and was buried, Parker, and I saw the tombstone at the head of my grave." Parker—"Saw your tombstone, eh? And what of it?" "Why, I'm trying to live up to the epitaph."

Discouraged.
"Don't you dance?" "No," replied Mr. Meekton. "Haven't you tried to learn?" "Yes. The lady I employed was a very competent instructor. But I can't see any sense in a man's paying a woman to find fault with him."

FOR
STATE TREASURER
CHARLES E.
HOOK
OF OTTAWA

Candidate for Republican Nomination.
Primary election Sept. 9, 1914.

Qualified by training and experience. Banker 34 years. Cashier First National Bank 18 years. Assisted in conducting last two state campaigns as Republican State Central committee man, 12th Congressional District. Mayor of Ottawa six years. Has never sought nor held state office.

VALUABLE BEAST OF BURDEN

Elephant's Tremendous Strength Enables Him to Do More Work Than Team of Horses.

This is the year of the "elephant battle" in the great forests of Mysore, India. The hunting of these gigantic animals is permitted in India only every fifth year. On the average from 200 to 250 wild elephants are captured during the battle season, and these are trained for the various purposes for which the Asiatic elephant is used. Everybody knows how conspicuous a part tamed elephants play in the great public spectacles in India. Indian princes and officials sometimes pay thousands of dollars for exceptionally fine and intelligent elephants. After they have been properly trained they are furnished with trappings gleaming with gold and splendid color. The howdah that an elephant trained for hunting carries on its back, and in which its master rides, while its driver places himself just back of its head, frequently weighs more than 200 pounds, but the huge animal regards it no more than a horse does a riding saddle.

On a good level road an elephant will march at the rate of five miles per hour, and he is capable of running, for short distances, with a speed of 20 miles an hour. He can carry, in regular service, from 1,200 to 1,500 pounds, and he would not greatly mind a ton or more.

With his enormous muscles and his dead weight of five or six tons it is evident that his pulling and lifting power must be immense. He can pull down or root up small trees, can pick up huge logs with his trunk and carry or throw them around like sticks and staves. He is a very tractable beast when well tamed, he often does farm work of which a team of horses would be utterly incapable. He can make a fence or place huge blocks of stone in a wall. He is often employed to drag artillery wagons.

ALWAYS GAVE OF HIS BEST

Writer's Testimony to the Sincerity With Which Charles Dickens Did His Work.

There is another feature of Dickens' character which cannot be too often or too seriously insisted upon—and that is his intense earnestness and thoroughness in everything he did. He said to me more than once: "My dear boy, do everything at your best. If you do that neither I nor any one else can find fault with you, even if you fail; for myself I can honestly say that I have taken as great pains with the smallest thing I ever did as with the biggest."

In giving advice to a young author, he said on one occasion:

"If you want your public to believe in what you write you must believe in it yourself. When I am describing a scene I can as distinctly see what I am describing as I can see you now. So real are my characters to me that on one occasion I had fixed upon the course which one of them was to pursue. The character, however, got hold of me and made me do exactly the opposite to what I had intended; but I was so sure that he was right and I was wrong that I let him have his own way."

Whatever he did, either in work or at play, he always gave of his very best. He hated slackness or half-heartedness in any shape or form.—H. F. Dickens, A. C., in Harper's Magazine.

The Week-End Danger.
It is easy to get one's system out of order; it is often hard to get it straight again. Therefore take no liberties with it when you go off for the week-end. This means that one should try to live then as nearly as possible according to his regular routine. If he is used to a light breakfast, it is easy, without attracting special attention, to take it at a friend's house no matter how much more is served. If a noon dinner is provided instead of your usual light lunch, eat sparingly of it and partake freely of the light supper. It is almost always safe to eat less than you are used to, rather than more. Be careful that the fruit you take is ripe. Don't eat heartily, just before or after swimming, mountain-climbing or violent tennis or ball. Be moderate about everything. If you fall ill, you will not only spoil all your own pleasure, but also that of others as well.

Never Like the Real Thing.
Artificial silks of which there are many varieties, resemble the real in appearance, but differ completely in their properties. They are glossy and attractive, but frequently inflammable and become gummy in water. They are brittle and inelastic. Their weight is greater; their price, when dishonest dealers do not attempt to substitute them for the real article, is lower.

For same purposes certain grades of artificial silks are good value and give fairly satisfactory service. They are much used in hosiery, neckties and dress trimmings.

Give Both a Chance.
Urbus—They ought to get up a show consisting of the last acts of the various plays in town, for the benefit of our suburbanites who have to leave early to catch the last train home.

Suburbus—I don't think it's any more needed than a show consisting of the first acts of the same plays, for the benefit of our city people who have to come in late because you won't dine early.—Judge.

Would Do Just as Well.
"Noo, John, what hao I to bring ye frae the toon?" said a good wife to her husband as she was leaving to catch the train. "Hey," replied John, "ma snuff's all gone, an' I wad like ye to fetch me half an ounce." "Nay, nay," said the wife, "ye musn't be extravagant; ye know ye've been off work a week, so ye musn't use nae snuff. Jest tickle yer nose wi' a straw instead."

Just Like a Trust Magnate.
In the second grade of a public school the teacher saw a little boy pass a note to the little girl across the aisle. On opening it she read, "dear Kathleen will you be my bow. I had one girl onct but she wanted everything I saw.—Georgia."

Thank God for Work.
Thank God every morning that you have something to do that day, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance and self-control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content, and a hundred virtues the idle will never know.—Charles Kingsley.

How to Keep Pins From Rusting.
Needles and pins will never rust in a cushion filled with coffee grounds. Rinse the grounds in cold water, spread on a sheet of paper to dry thoroughly, and then stuff the cushion.

Rule in Seagull Land.
"No seagull shall sit nearer to any other seagull than nine inches or thereabouts." This is a fixed rule at any place where seagulls congregate.

Literary Works Now Available.
Literature in Turkey has responded to the liberty that followed the revolution. Large numbers of translations and adaptations of European scientific and literary works and books of a popular nature are now available.

Rich and Poor.
He that is rich need not live sparingly, and he that can live sparingly need not be rich.

How Could They Last.
Mr. Simmleon is a very irascible man, and is in the habit of punishing his boys severely. Not long since he observed that one of his sons needed a new pair of trousers. He scolded the boy for wearing out his clothes so fast. "Pa, no trousers can last any time the way you hit," replied the son, reproachfully.

How to Discover Mastoiditis.
Tenderness discovered by pressing the hard bone behind the ear is apt to indicate mastoiditis, especially if the ear itself discharges. If the disease is recognized before serious trouble begins, a most grave operation and possibly death may be avoided.

Pray and You Will Receive.
As the family was about to leave the dinner table little Elsie was observed with her head bowed and her hands clasped. "Why, Elsie," said her mother, "don't you know that dinner is over?" "Don't interrupt me, please," replied Elsie. "I'm praying for another dish of that pudding."—Chicago News.

Two Classes of Men.
It has been said that all men may be divided into two classes: Those who like vaudeville and those who can stand it when they're drunk.

Three Farms For Sale

TO THE Homeseeker or Speculator

I wish to set down and have a face to face talk with you through these columns. I am a man close to 60 years old and desire to cut down responsibilities and much desire to retire from all business, and therefore offer for quick sale my three farms at a special LOW price as follows: Farm No 1—Contains 300 acres and joins the young thrifty village of Shennington, Monroe Co., Wis., which is located on the big new line of the C. & N. W. Ry., from Chicago direct to Seattle, Wash. On this big new R. R. can be seen solid vestibule trains, which all stop at Wyeville, a distance of 3 miles where any of the special trains can be boarded. Other trains stop in Shennington, where a fine new depot has been erected. This young town now has two fine stores, village school, one German and one Danish Lutheran Church; good hotel, blacksmith, salting station for cucumbers; (capacity 20,000 bushels), farmer's creamery. This town is becoming the home market; and is located on one of the best railroads in our beautiful state. The land which I offer for sale has been my property for over 21 years and I am prepared to offer the best of titles with abstract.

FARM NO ONE

Is 5 minutes walk to P. O., and contains 300 acres.
Has good 9 room house with large stone basement; fine door yard; barn 28x70 16; large new shed built last fall 20x68 for young stock and sheep; granary 20x24 14 story; tool shed, hen house, hog pen, corn crib, two fine wells, no finer water in Wisconsin, over 100 acres under plow, balance pasture with live water and timber land. This farm, located as it is, should sell for not less than $75.00 an acre; but wishing to relieve myself of at least some responsibilities I will part with this farm for $45.00 an acre. I will also sell my live stock, tools and horses at a special bargain and may remain on farm. Renters time is up Oct. 1, but will be glad to stay longer.

Is located one mile south of the Village of Shennington, and contains 320 acres of slightly rolling land, with 60 acres cleared 6 years ago, but was not broke. There is in all about 100 acres which is practically clear; 275 acres of this land can be put under plow and not a hill, stone or large stump; this is hard wood land and was cut over 60 years ago. It is mostly fine clay land and has good producing farms all around it. Any purchaser can easily judge for himself what kind of a farm it will make and what it will produce when seeing what the adjoining farms will do. There are about 40 acres of timber land on creek bottom. The timber is maple, birch and bur oak. Many acres of this tract is easy to clear and will make a fine cow or stock farm. This farm is on 2 public roads, one on the east side and one east and west through the tract, leaving 190 acres south of the road and the balance on the north side which should naturally become pasture land with creek through one corner. The 190 on south side can be put to plow land in solid piece with not a foot of waste land.

My price for this tract for some years has been $45.00 an acre but will now let it go for $32.00. This land is all fenced and has been pastured for several years. There is sufficient grass to take care of 200 head of cattle. This land will raise wheat, oats, barley, or in fact, any product which can be raised in Kenosha county. Being only 110 miles due north of the Illinois line, or due west of Oshkosh, fine crops of corn are being raised. Dairy farming is the chief occupation. There is no difference between farming there and here. I wish to lay special stress on the fact that an acre of this land properly farmed will make one year with another as many dollars as land will down here. Last year the lighter land which was planted to potatoes brought the planter from $75.00 to $125.00 per acre in real cash. The above figures are set low, as potatoes sold for 55c in the field, and on a good year they will raise from 150 to 300 bushels to the acre.

FARM NO TWO

It is fair to say that there is no spot on the map where finer water can be found than in our Monroe county Valley. All wells are drill wells from 20 to 20 feet deep. By driving a point through 18 solid copper colored clay a strata of gravel is reached and water clear as a crystal is pumped in minutes later. I will guarantee to put down one day and furnish fine water or no pay for it. The railroad accommodations are absolutely first in every respect; and when it comes to climate one can expect to find any better; being 40 miles away from Lake Michigan, people who from here claim that much less of the cold northeast wind is experienced in Monroe county.

When it comes to fine drainage both of the have it; as the two creeks were straightened by large ditch so both farms are provided with fine drainage. The ditchers are not all paid for as yet, but I am offering my land so cheap that any purchaser can afford to pay it.

Speaking of climate, I wish to call the readers attention to the true fact that, many people lose sight of the many lovely features of Wisconsin, as the climate as a whole is hard to beat, but as a rule in abundance. Railroad service, first class. Old Wisconsin seldom suffers a failure. I cordially invite home seekers or investors to go and talk to the actual settlers who 18 years ago settled in the town of Byron, who now Shennington is located. They are the best class of people; and will tell you they want there poor. Then size up their farms and buildings which were paid for with money derived from the products of the soil. If I thought my readers would not come tired I would like to say just a word about future possibilities for the Badger State (Wisconsin). This state with its beautiful lakes, streams and covered hills will in the very near future be looked for by the southerner to spend the winter months as we are to invest our money for winter in the south. In the not distant future thousands of people will be surprised. Already the land points that way.

I nearly overlooked stating that I have a 40 acre tract, 1 1/2 mile north of Shennington for offer for $1000.00; not a hill, stone or big easy to clear. $1,000.00 on easy payments. This is all good land except about 3 acres sandy soil but will raise fine potatoes and corn. All land guaranteed as I represent. I will be to furnish map and any other particulars on tation. I wish further to say that my 320 acres made into 3 farms; one of 160 and two farms 80 acres with nice building spots and on pub I will be pleased to hear from parties, who in the market for a good home or a gift ed mount. I have taken special pains to tell what I have to offer and trust that to a letter will convey good news and future will be appreciated.

Thanking you in advance for an inquiry, legal description, etc., I am

Most sincerely yours,

F. H. SCHENNING,

Silver Lake,